INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of July 18, 2016

MEM-215-16 Energetic New York Democrat is seeking a highly motivated legislative intern to join his Washington, DC office for a part time unpaid internship this fall. Candidates should possess a professional and courteous demeanor, interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, the ability to multi-task, attention to detail, and a sense of humor. Main responsibilities include, but are not limited to, attending Congressional briefings, responding to constituent correspondence, assisting with flag requests, and general office duties. Candidates with New York ties and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, and a short writing sample to NY.ResumeInbox@mail.house.gov. Equal opportunity employer. No calls or walk-ins please.

MEM-214-16 The Washington, D.C. office of Congresswoman Louise Slaughter (NY-25) is seeking a full-time press intern to work with the communications team in the Congresswoman's personal and Rules Committee offices for the Fall 2016 semester.

The press intern will work directly with an award-winning communications staff to carry out responsibilities including – but not limited to – creating digital content, developing press lists, collecting and distributing press clips, drafting press releases, and contacting reporters. Special skills such as photography or graphic design are a plus. Standard schedule begins with aggregating news clips at 8:00 am and ends at 4:00 pm.

Congresswoman Slaughter is the top Democrat on the House Committee on Rules. The Rules Committee determines the parameters of debate for all major legislation before it can be considered on the House Floor and is a hotbed of activity.

Applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, and a short writing sample, and if applicable, a portfolio sample to Frances Carrion at NY25.InternApplications@mail.house.gov. Please do not hesitate to contact James at 202-225-3615 with any questions.

MEM-213-16 The Washington, DC office of Congresswoman Louise M. Slaughter (D-NY) is offering fall internship opportunities for college students and recent college graduates. First-hand experience interning in Congresswoman Slaughter's office provides a unique opportunity to understand the development and implementation of public policy. Intern responsibilities include drafting letters to constituents, attending committee hearings, writing summary briefs, researching various issues for the legislative staff, and assisting with additional office duties.

Interns are matched based on their policy interests with a legislative staffer and together they develop substantive projects that allow interns the chance to increase their knowledge of a subject area and better understand how the federal government works. Interns will also gain unique insight into the legislative process and parliamentary procedure as a result of Congresswoman Slaughter's position as the ranking member of the House Rules Committee.

Applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, and a one to three page writing sample to Frances Carrion at NY25.InternApplications@mail.house.gov. Please do not hesitate to contact Frances at (202) 225-3615 with any questions.

MEM-211-16 Congressman John Garamendi (CA-03) is seeking a highly motivated intern to join his Washington, DC office this fall. Candidates should be collegial, professional, quick learners, and phenomenal team players. Strong oral and written communication skills and close attention to detail are imperative. Duties include assisting staff with legislative, administrative, and press related projects, writing memos and talking points, attending hearings and meetings, answering constituent phone calls, leading tours of the US Capitol, assisting with scheduling, sorting and distributing mail, and managing tour and flag requests.

Interns are considered an integral part of the team and are given the opportunity to learn and grow through working with us both to achieve the goals of the office and to pursue and develop their areas of interest. First-hand experience in

Congressman Garamendi's congressional office provides interns with an unparalleled knowledge and understanding of the development of public policy. Full-time candidates with California ties and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to Garamendi.Internships@mail.house.gov.

MEM-210-16 The office of Congressman Bill Posey [FL-08] is currently seeking highly motivated and organized applicants for a full-time or part-time unpaid internship for the 2016 fall internship program. The internship is scheduled to run from August to December, but the months of the internship may vary depending on the availability or school schedule of the applicant. The internship program is open to college students and recent graduates who are interested in learning more about our country's legislative process and the day-to-day operations of a congressional office. Candidates should possess interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, and attention to detail. Responsibilities will mostly include, but are not limited to: answering phones, leading tours of the U.S. Capitol and performing various administrative tasks. Florida ties are preferred, but are not required. The deadline to apply is July 31, 2016. If interested, please send a resume to FloridaConservativeRepublican@gmail.com with "2016 Fall Internship" in the subject line. No phone calls or walk-ins will be accepted.

MEM-208-16 The Office of Congressman Jim Renacci (R-OH) seeks full time intern starting in the beginning of August 2016. Responsibilities include, but aren't limited to, answering phone calls, assisting with the mail program, providing constituent tours, attending various briefings, and providing research for the legislative staff. Qualified candidates will have exceptional writing skills, strong communication skills, ability to work in a fast paced working environment, and have an interest in learning more about the legislative process. Send a resume and a cover letter to Stephen.Hostelley@mail.house.gov. Ohio candidates are strongly preferred.

MEM-207-16 Congressman Gerald Connolly seeks applicants for an internship in his Washington D.C. Office for Fall 2016 (late August to January). Main responsibilities include (but are not limited to) answering the phones, sorting mail, drafting constituent correspondence, arranging tours, conducting legislative research for staff, attending Congressional hearings with staff, and performing other administrative tasks as needed.

Applicants should be reliable and detail-oriented, and possess a professional and courteous demeanor, strong verbal and written communication skills, and the ability to multi-task in a fast-paced environment. Ties to the 11th District of Virginia are preferred, but not required.

To apply for this internship please send a resume, cover letter, and writing sample to val1.internship@mail.house.gov.

MEM-206-16 Congressman Tony Cárdenas is seeking a Press Intern to join his Washington, D.C. team for a part- or full-time, unpaid internship starting as soon as possible, for a duration of three months or longer. The Press Intern will learn many of the basic skills it takes to become a communications professional in a dynamic and exciting environment. They will become involved in all core activities of the communications team and day-to-day tasks to help integrate them into the office.

Candidates should be self-starters and able to exercise good judgment on a wide range of assignments in a fast-paced and busy office. Very strong writing skills with close attention to detail and a good sense of humor are essential. Photo or video editing skills a plus.

Main responsibilities will include:

- Social media monitoring
- News monitoring
- Drafting various press materials
- Writing newsletter excerpts
- Researching targeted press lists
- Staffing the Congressman at events and media interviews

Candidates with California ties, especially to the San Fernando Valley, and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply. Internships are awarded on an equal opportunity basis; women, minorities, and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Please e-mail resume and cover letter with your availability in PDF format to Intern.Resume@mail.house.gov. The subject line should read as follows “Press Intern Application.”

MEM-205-16 Congressman Ben Ray Luján (NM-03) is seeking unpaid full-time and part-time interns for his Washington, D.C. office. Candidates should be motivated, flexible, and detail-oriented individuals with immediate availability, and a preference for those who can stay two-three months. New Mexico ties are a plus, but are not required.

Intern responsibilities include answering constituent phone calls, leading tours of the Capitol, sorting mail and faxes, writing letters, and assisting experienced staff with projects in diverse issue areas. Candidates should be outgoing and possess strong oral and written communication skills, an ability to multitask in a fast-paced environment, and a good sense of humor. Candidates with New Mexico ties are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, and a 1-2 page writing sample to michelle.serrato@mail.house.gov.

MEM-204-16 The Office of Rep. Scott Rigell (VA-02) is seeking politically Conservative unpaid Fall 2016 interns in their Washington, DC, office to begin in August/September and continue through December. The Office seeks an outgoing, enthusiastic person with at least 3 days/week availability who would like experience working in a Congressional Office. Virginia ties are a plus but not required. Interested persons should submit resume to Julie.Moorhead@mail.house.gov.

- MEM-202-16 Moderate Southern Democrat seeks applicants for part-time and full-time unpaid congressional internships in Washington, DC. Duties will include conducting legislative research, drafting memos and responses to letters from constituents, assisting constituents and visitors to the office, assisting with day-to-day operations at the office, answering phones, leading tours of the US Capitol, maintaining constituency database, running errands and performing basic administrative tasks. Candidates should possess superior written and verbal communication skills and an interest in learning the intricacies of the legislative process. Part-time interns will be expected to commit to at least two full day shifts (9:00am to 6:00pm) per week, Monday through Friday. Ties to Florida are preferred, though not required. Oregon ties are preferred, but not required. All internships are unpaid. Please e-mail your resume and cover letter to jon.bosworth@mail.house.gov.

About Rep. Blumenauer: A lifelong resident of Portland, Oregon, Representative Earl Blumenauer (OR-03) has devoted his entire career to public service. While still a student at Lewis and Clark College, he spearheaded the effort to lower the voting age both in Oregon and at the national level. He was elected to the Oregon Legislature in 1972, where he served three terms and Chaired the House Education and Revenue Committee in 1977-78. In 1978, he was elected to the Multnomah County Commission, where he served for eight years before being elected to the Portland City Council in 1986. There, his 10-year tenure as the Commissioner of Public Works demonstrated his leadership on the innovative accomplishments in transportation, planning, environmental programs and public participation that have helped Portland earn an international reputation as one of America's most livable cities.

Elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1996, Representative Blumenauer has created a unique role as Congress' chief spokesperson for Livable Communities: places where people are safe, healthy and economically secure. He is a strong advocate for federal policies that address transportation alternatives, provide housing choices, support sustainable economies, and improve the environment. Representative Blumenauer sits on the Ways and Means Committee, giving him a unique platform from which to initiate and legislation that addresses and mitigates the effects of global warming while also advancing his priorities of honest trade, financing critical infrastructure, building livable communities in a global economy, and ensuring economic security for working families.
