MEM-433-18 The leaders of the Sustainable Energy and Environment Coalition—a 57-member caucus focused on energy and environmental policy—are looking for a fellow to help serve caucus offices during the spring of 2019. The fellow would help lead caucus policy initiatives, help facilitate SEEC’s communications work, and help manage SEEC events including member meetings, staff meetings and policy briefings. During their time with the caucus, this fellow would have the opportunity to build relationships with 57 plus member offices and off-Hill organizations that work in the energy and environmental space, among other connections. The experience will give this person an inside look at policy development and a better understanding of how Congress works, in addition to expanding the fellow’s Hill network.

The fellow would be placed in the Washington DC office of a Member of Congress serving in SEEC leadership. The fellow would need to be able to serve from January through May of 2019, but could arrange to stay longer or start earlier. An earlier start date would benefit the fellow by allowing training time and planning experience ahead of the 116th Congress, better allowing the fellow to hit the ground running in January 2019. If interested, please submit a resume and cover letter to the below noted email address. Currently this position is unpaid.

For more information or to submit an application, please email SEECFellow@mail.house.gov with the subject line “SEEC Fellowship Opportunity”.
