INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of July 2, 2018

- MEM-194-18 Congressman Doug LaMalfa (CA-01) is currently seeking interns for the Fall Term for his Washington D.C. office. Candidates must be self-starters, detail oriented, have excellent writing and communication skills, and be able to multi-task. The internship involves researching legislative issues, assisting with incoming mail, attending lectures and hearings, giving Capitol tours, working with legislative staff on special projects and assisting with other general office duties. Please note that this is an unpaid internship, if you are seeking college credit our office would be happy to assist in that. California ties a plus. Please email your cover letter and resume to paige.boogaard@mail.house.gov with "Fall Intern" in the subject line.
- MEM-192-18 The Washington D.C. office of Congressman Jim Renacci (OH-16) is now accepting applications for Fall internships. Full and part-time internships are available. Start/ stop dates are flexible. Basic intern responsibilities include greeting visitors, answering phones, sorting mail, legislative research, assisting staff on various projects, and conducting tours of the Capitol Building. Interns will have the opportunity to attend briefings and hearings of interest as well as see firsthand how a congressional office operates. Candidates must be motivated, flexible, confident, and able to work well independently in a fast paced environment. Ohio ties are preferred but not required. College students and recent graduates considered. Internships are unpaid but course credit is available. Intern housing information is available upon request. Qualified candidates should send a cover letter and resume to Ben.Margolin@mail.house.gov.

MEM-191-18 Congressman Charlie Crist (FL-13) is seeking unpaid interns for Fall 2018 in Washington, D.C. Interns will assist the legislative and administrative staff with attending briefings, answering phones, coordinate and conduct tours, drafting constituent correspondence letters, performing legislative research and analysis, and various other tasks. Internships are open to undergraduate students and college graduates. Florida ties are encouraged but not required. No phone calls or drop ins. To apply, please email a cover letter, resume and 1-2 page writing sample as a single PDF by July 13th, 2018 to FL13.Internships@mail.house.gov.

MEM-190-18 U.S. Rep. Bill Pascrell, Jr. (D-NJ), member of the Ways and Means Committee, seeks fall interns for his Washington, DC office. This internship term runs from September through mid-December. Duties include sorting and processing mail, greeting visitors, answering phone calls, attending briefings and hearings, researching legislative issues, leading tours of the Capitol, assisting our press team, and drafting constituent correspondence. This internship is unpaid. Ties to New Jersey are strongly preferred, but not necessary.

Congressman Pascrell has served in Congress for 20 years and serves on the Ways and Means Committee and as the Ranking Member on the Ways and Means Subcommittee on Trade. He holds a leadership position on the Democratic Steering and Policy Committee. This internship is an opportunity to work in a veteran office and learn the ins and outs of Congress. We are very open to interns working in the areas that interest them most and taking on increasing responsibility as the summer progresses. Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter to Christopher Hadad (Christopher.Hadad@mail.house.gov).

All applications are due by July 27th, 2018.

MEM-189-18 The office of Congresswoman Martha McSally is seeking fall interns for the Washington, D.C. office. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, conducting Capitol tours, corresponding with constituents, researching legislative issues, attending committee hearings, and assisting the Member and staff with data management.

Interns will be expected to work a minimum of 24 hours per week, with preference given to candidates who can work full time. Ideal candidates are self-starters with strong interpersonal skills, writing capabilities, and attention to detail. Interested candidates should email resumes to chris.beckmann@mail.house.gov.

MEM-188-18 The Washington, DC office of Congresswoman Doris Matsui (CA-06) is seeking motivated, organized, and reliable interns for the Fall of 2018. Intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, answering phones, conducting Capitol tours, sorting incoming mail, attending briefings, conducting legislative research and performing other administrative tasks as necessary. Successful candidates will possess excellent written and oral communication skills, a strong attentiveness to detail, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an eagerness to learn about the political process and congressional affairs. California ties are a plus. Please send a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to Robert.Clark@mail.house.gov with “Fall 2018 Internship” in the subject line.

MEM-187-18 The Washington, DC office of Congressman Dwight Evans (PA-02) is seeking highly motivated interns for the fall semester. Strong written and verbal communication skills required. Must be dependable and a team player. Duties include conducting research for legislative staff, leading Capitol tours, answering constituent phone calls and inquiries, attending congressional briefings and hearings, and compiling press clips.

Although the internship is unpaid, you will gain valuable professional experience and inside knowledge of the legislative process on Capitol Hill. Philadelphia or Pennsylvania ties strongly preferred but not required. Interested candidates should send a resume, cover letter, and availability to Chandler.Mason@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Fall 2018 Internship.”

MEM-184-18 The Washington, D.C. office of Congressman Brendan F. Boyle (PA-13) is seeking motivated, organized, and reliable interns for the upcoming fall semester. Interns will work closely with the Congressman’s legislative and communications teams to conduct research, draft letters and press releases, answer constituent phone calls, sort mail, attend briefings, and perform other administrative tasks as necessary. Successful applicants will possess excellent written and oral communication skills, a strong attentiveness to detail, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an eagerness to learn about the political process and congressional affairs. Please send a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to MaryBeth.Hervig@mail.house.gov with “Name - Internship Application” in the subject line.

MEM-183-18 The Office of Congressman Daniel Lipinski (IL-03) is currently seeking both full and part time spring interns for the fall semester in the Washington D.C. office. Prospective interns should have a love for politics and the legislative process, a desire to learn, and a willingness to work hard in this fast-paced office. This is an unpaid internship.

Day to day intern responsibilities will include: drafting constituent correspondence, leading tours of the U.S. Capitol, answering phones, working with legislative staff on policy issue research, and attending briefings and hearings. Interns will work closely with legislative staff and will be given all the tools necessary to learn to become a congressional staffer by the end of the internship.

Applications can be submitted via the email link at <https://lipinski.house.gov/internships/>. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis and should include: your name, contact information, university, year of graduation, dates you are available, and an attached resume and cover letter. Third District of Illinois ties are preferred. Please no drop ins.

MEM-181-18 Congressman Scott DesJarlais (TN-04)—unpaid; full time internship

The DC office of Congressman DesJarlais is looking for Fall interns, September-December.

The responsibilities will vary. Interns will be asked to answer phones, conduct Capitol tours, run errands, research legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings and answer constituent letters on various issues before the House. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

The hours generally run 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Interested candidates should e-mail an updated resume and cover letter to MeKenna.Carman@mail.house.gov.
