Week of October 10, 2017

MEM-363-17 The Office of Congressman Denny Heck (WA-10) is currently seeking full – or part – time interns for the Spring 2018 semester in Washington DC. Intern responsibilities include answering phone calls, greeting visitors, leading tours of the Capitol, drafting letters to constituents, and helping conduct research for various administrative projects. Ideal candidates will have a meticulous attention to detail, strong writing skills, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an enthusiasm for the political process and congressional operations. Internships are unpaid, but can serve as a first-step towards a career on Capitol Hill. Ties to the Pacific Northwest preferred but not required. Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, two references, and work availability with the subject line “Spring 2018 Internship” to Nick Vargish at nick.vargish@mail.house.gov.

MEM-362-17 Congressman Alcee L. Hastings (FL-20) is seeking enthusiastic and highly motivated applicants for a full or part-time unpaid internships.

Candidates should possess a strong interest in the legislative process. Strong oral and written skills and close attention to details are imperative. Interns are considered an integral part of the team and will have the opportunity to gain experience working on Capitol Hill and learn firsthand about the workings of a Congressional office. Responsibilities will include conducting legislative research, drafting memos and responses to letters from constituents, assisting constituents and visitors to the office, and attending briefings and hearings. Congressman Hastings supports students requesting credit for their internship through their school or university. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, writing sample and dates of availability to internship.alhastings@mail.house.gov with "2017 Internship" in the subject line. No phone calls or walk-ins will be accepted.

MEM-361-17 Democratic Member of Congress seeks applicants for full or part-time unpaid congressional interns for Fall 2017 and Spring 2018. Duties will include conducting legislative research, drafting memos, assisting with front office duties, and administrative tasks. Interns will have the opportunity to attending meetings, hearings, and briefings to remain informed about current legislative issues. Candidates must exhibit strong writing and communication skills. New York and Brooklyn ties are ideal. Please send your resume and cover letter to ResumeNY@mail.house.gov.

MEM-360-17 The House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific is seeking candidates for an internship with the Republican majority. Undergraduates, graduate, and recent graduates with a demonstrated interest in U.S. policy towards the Asia-Pacific will be considered. The internship will be full-time.

The Subcommittee intern is expected to be motivated and entrepreneurial, a strong writer and communicator, detail oriented, and able to produce high quality work products under time constraints. Daily duties will include, but are not limited to, conducting background research, database maintenance, fact checking, content editing, and proofreading. The intern will also assist with the preparation and execution of subcommittee hearings, which will include conducting research and analysis, organizing documents for staff and members, and assisting staff in the hearing room.

Proactive interns will be able to take advantage of this opportunity to enhance their knowledge of Asia policy and professional life on Capitol Hill by participation in hearings, briefings, and meetings, as well as other opportunities. Interns are expected to demonstrate a high level of professionalism and reliability. All internships are uncompensated, but staffs are happy to support interns seeking class credit for their work.

Information about the subcommittee's membership and recent activities can be found at <http://foreignaffairs.house.gov/subcommittees/asia-and-pacific>.
