INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of December 17, 2018

MEM-496-18 “Congressman Jimmy Gomez (CA-34) is seeking applications for internship positions available in his Washington, D.C. office. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. This internship provides a great opportunity to gain experience working in a Congressional office and get a first-hand look at the legislative process.

Intern duties include performing research for staffers, supporting legislative and communications activities, helping with front office operations, assisting with constituent relations, and giving tours of the Capitol. Candidates should be self-starters with excellent communication skills, the ability to multitask effectively and think critically, attention to detail, and an interest in the legislative and governmental process.

This internship presents an excellent opportunity for college students and recent graduates seeking Capitol Hill experience. Southern California ties are preferred, but not required. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, disability or age. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should email a resume and cover letter to CA34.internship@mail.house.gov with “Internship Application” in the subject line.”

MEM-495-18 Congressman Tom Marino (PA-10) is seeking full-time, unpaid Legislative Interns for Spring 2019 in his Washington, DC office. Interns will assist with legislative and administrative work by attending briefings, answering phones, conducting tours, drafting constituent correspondence letters, and performing legislative research, among other tasks. Internships are open to undergraduate students and college graduates. Pennsylvania and District ties are preferred, but not required. No phone calls or drop ins, please. To apply, please complete the form on our website: <https://marino.house.gov/services/internships>.

MEM-493-18 “The House Democratic Caucus is currently accepting intern applications for the 2019 Spring Semester. This is a full time internship that requires a flexible schedule and knowledge of House Democrats. Our internship term runs from January through April. Interns will assist with the setup of weekly Caucus meetings, Member outreach, legislative work, and press services. Caucus interns will also handle front office duties such as answering phones, operating/managing letter folding program, coordinating Capitol tours, and greeting visitors to name a few. Qualified applicants must possess a pleasant attitude, great work ethic, and have the flexibility to work some early/late caucus meetings. Candidates with prior Hill experience, great writing skills and strong familiarity with House Democrats are preferred.

Please email a cover letter and resume in PDF Form to CaucusInternResume@mail.house.gov with your availability. Include “2019 Democratic Caucus Spring Internship” in the subject line.”

MEM-492-18 The Office of Congressman-Elect David Trone (MD-06) is currently seeking highly qualified students or recent graduates for the position of Intern. Opportunities will be available in our Capitol Hill Office or one of our District Offices, located in Gaithersburg, Frederick, Hagerstown, and Cumberland.

Interns are an integral part of the team and are given substantial opportunities to learn and grow in a fast-paced and active office. Interns will gain experience in constituent outreach, casework, legislative research, and office management. The ideal candidate will be professional, responsible, and friendly. Candidates should be organized, eager to learn, able to work both individually and as part of a team, perform well under pressure, and adapt to rapidly changing situations.

Qualifications:

- Proficiency in Microsoft Windows and Office Suite
- Good written and oral communication skills

- Ability to work cooperatively and courteously in a team environment
- Commitment to providing excellent constituent service
- Be able to complete Internet-based research on a variety of topics
- Knowledge of voter or constituent databases a plus
- A positive, can-do attitude and a willingness to learn

We encourage anyone to apply, but preference will be given to applicants who live in or go to school in Maryland's 6th Congressional District. We ask candidates to work a minimum of 16 hours per week and give a 10-week minimum commitment. Specific start and end dates as well as the weekly schedule are negotiable.

To apply, send resume and cover letter to MD06.Intern@gmail.com. Please indicate in the subject line which office is preferred.

MEM-486-18 The Office of Congressman Matt Gaetz (R-FL) is seeking an Military/National Security Intern for immediate placement/spring semester in Washington, DC office. Although this internship is unpaid, students gain invaluable national security experience. A national security intern's responsibilities are varied but substantive. They will be asked to answer phones, research national security legislation for the MLA, and attend hearings and briefings. Congressman Gaetz serves on the Armed Services Committee and represents the largest military district in the country. Interns will be able to get a broad perspective on the Air Force, The Army, The Navy, The State Department, and other national security related appendages of the government. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

The hours are flexible to accommodate students' hectic course schedules, but generally run 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. when Congress is in session, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. when not in session. Students will leave the internship with a greater understanding of how a Congressional office works, how constituent relationships are forged and maintained, and how the legislative process works. Students should be highly motivated, ready to learn, and eager to work in a fast-paced environment. Please apply by emailing your resume cover letter to fl.1st.intern.applications@gmail.com

MEM-433-18 The leaders of the Sustainable Energy and Environment Coalition—a 57-member caucus focused on energy and environmental policy—are looking for a fellow to help serve caucus offices during the spring of 2019. The fellow would help lead caucus policy initiatives, help facilitate SEEC’s communications work, and help manage SEEC events including member meetings, staff meetings and policy briefings. During their time with the caucus, this fellow would have the opportunity to build relationships with 57 plus member offices and off-Hill organizations that work in the energy and environmental space, among other connections. The experience will give this person an inside look at policy development and a better understanding of how Congress works, in addition to expanding the fellow’s Hill network.

The fellow would be placed in the Washington DC office of a Member of Congress serving in SEEC leadership. The fellow would need to be able to serve from January through May of 2019, but could arrange to stay longer or start earlier. An earlier start date would benefit the fellow by allowing training time and planning experience ahead of the 116th Congress, better allowing the fellow to hit the ground running in January 2019. If interested, please submit a resume and cover letter to the below noted email address. Currently this position is unpaid.

For more information or to submit an application, please email SEECFellow@mail.house.gov with the subject line “SEEC Fellowship Opportunity”.
