INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING
Week of November 19, 2018

MEM-435-18 Ohio Democrat is seeking interns for the winter/spring semester of 2019. Interns will work in a fast-paced Congressional Office, gaining valuable exposure and knowledge of the legislative process and the United States Congress. Interns will have the opportunity to conduct legislative research, assist with correspondence, as well as attend some Capitol Hill briefings, congressional hearings, and press events. Responsibilities will include handling constituent phone calls, opening and sorting mail, giving Capitol Tours, and assisting staff with administrative tasks. This internship is unpaid. Qualifications: Interns must have a pleasant attitude, strong work ethic, and excellent written and oral communication skills. Successful interns will be able to find information with little assistance, be able to work both independently as well as part of a team, and have strong attention to detail.

9th District Ohio ties a plus!

Please email Courtney.Hruska@Mail.house.gov with cover letter and resume. Availability must be in cover letter. All components must be submitted for consideration.

MEM-434-18 The Office of Congresswoman Gwen Moore (WI-04) is seeking a press intern to assist with a fast-paced communications operation for Spring 2019 (starting January 2019). Qualified candidates will have strong writing, editing, event planning, social media, graphic design, and photography skills, and be able to work on tight deadlines. Selected candidates will also be expected to perform standard administrative duties.

Intern responsibilities include:

- * Social media content development
- * Event photography
- * Compiling press clips
- * Clipping videos
- * Creating graphics
- * Drafting press releases
- * Answering phones

Interested applicants should email a cover letter, resume, short writing sample, and dates of availability to GwenMoorePress.Moore@mail.house.gov with “Spring 2019 Press Internship” in the subject line. We also recommend, but do not require, applicants submit 1-3 sample graphics. Please note, this is an unpaid internship and we strongly encourage applicants to apply for academic credit.

MEM-433-18 The leaders of the Sustainable Energy and Environment Coalition—a 57-member caucus focused on energy and environmental policy—are looking for a fellow to help serve caucus offices during the spring of 2019. The fellow would help lead caucus policy initiatives, help facilitate SEEC’s communications work, and help manage SEEC events including member meetings, staff meetings and policy briefings. During their time with the caucus, this fellow would have the opportunity to build relationships with 57 plus member offices and off-Hill organizations that work in the energy and environmental space, among other connections. The experience will give this person an inside look at policy development and a better understanding of how Congress works, in addition to expanding the fellow’s Hill network.

The fellow would be placed in the Washington DC office of a Member of Congress serving in SEEC leadership. The fellow would need to be able to serve from January through May of 2019, but could arrange to stay longer or start earlier. An earlier start date would benefit the fellow by allowing training time and planning experience ahead of the 116th Congress, better allowing the fellow to hit the ground running in January 2019. If interested, please submit a resume and cover letter to the below noted email address. Currently this position is unpaid.

For more information or to submit an application, please email SEECFellow@mail.house.gov with the subject line “SEEC Fellowship Opportunity”.

MEM-432-18 Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard (HI-02) is currently seeking candidates for the 2019 Winter/Spring internship program in her District Office in Hawai‘i. Students will be given the opportunity to:

- Learn about the day-to-day operations of a Congressional District Office
- Research important legislative and local issues
- Develop practical communication skills in writing and speaking
- Assist district staff in helping constituents work with federal agencies
- Attend official functions and events with district staff or Congresswoman Gabbard
- Earn academic credit when available

Interested students may apply through our website. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis. We are currently advertising for the Winter/Spring semester; however, candidates for our Summer programs are also welcome to apply early.

This is an unpaid internship. We offer flexible scheduling based upon the student’s schedule, and work with each student to secure academic credit when available.

Please feel free to direct your questions about the internship program to TulsiHawaiiOffice@mail.house.gov or 808-541-1986.
