MEM-479-19 Constituent Services Representative - Congresswoman Lauren Underwood seeks a full-time Constituent Services Representative to serve as a federal problem solver in 14th Congressional District of Illinois. In this role, you will serve as a representative of the Office of the Congresswoman by acting as a liaison between the community and federal agencies to help constituents resolve matters (“casework”) they have before federal agencies.

In managing constituent casework, you will help residents of the IL-14 resolve primarily immigration-related issues (e.g. visa and passport processing) with federal agencies including the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and the Department of State. The role could also include casework related to Social Security benefits, Medicare benefits, Veterans benefits, postal issues, and others. This role requires investigation, intervention, facilitation, follow-up, and creative problem-solving.

This role requires conducting significant outreach throughout the IL-14 by hosting meetings in our office and throughout the District and representing the Office at community meetings. The role also requires community event planning and staffing the Congresswoman.

In serving as a Constituent Services Representative, you will work with local stakeholders, including community organizations and local and state governments, to identify and understand opportunities for Federal resources and legislation to advance the interest of people in the IL-14 Congressional District.

This is not an entry-level position. The ideal candidate must be a skilled listener and communicator, self-motivated and assertive, detail-oriented and organized, and a creative problem solver. Experience in social work, legal services, project management, customer service/hospitality, or claims processing are transferable to this role.

The position is based out of the Congresswoman’s Woodstock office or will include rotations between the Congresswoman’s Woodstock and West Chicago offices.

Women and people of color are strongly encouraged to apply. The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status.

To apply for the position, please send a cover letter and resume to Illinois14.DistrictJobs@gmail.com with “Constituent Services Representative” in the subject line. This is NOT an entry-level position. No phone calls or drop-ins, please.

MEM-477-19 The Office of Rep. Pete Aguilar (CA-31) is seeking candidates for the Legislative Correspondent position in our office. The LC is responsible for managing an active mail program and hiring and supervising the interns who manage the front office.

The successful candidate will be extremely organized, an excellent writer and editor, a self-starter, dependable and someone who is able to work collaboratively as part of a close-knit team. The primary responsibilities are managing the constituent mail program by sorting and batching incoming correspondence, drafting and editing letters, managing the letter approval process, maintaining and utilizing the mail databases, and ensuring the office maintains a short mail turnaround time. The LC is also responsible for hiring and supervising the interns, who manage the front office, handle tours and flags, answer the phones and greet visitors.

The ideal candidate will have ties to the Inland Empire, Spanish language skills, and previous Congressional experience. The salary range for the position is $40,000 to $45,000 a year plus student loan repayment and transit benefits. Our office also offers compensation time in addition to paid vacation and sick leave.

Our office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, disability, military status, age, marital status, or parental status. People of color and people from underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

MEM-462-19 The Office of the Law Revision Counsel—a small, nonpartisan office within the U.S. House of Representatives—seeks an attorney to assist in the editing and publishing of the United States Code, the codification of general and permanent Federal statutory law.

The editorial work needed to maintain the U.S. Code involves a number of tasks, including:

- reading new laws to determine which provisions should appear in the Code and where,
- updating the Code to reflect new law and amendments to existing law,
- writing concise editorial notes to explain amendments, effective dates, references within the text to other laws, and a variety of other legislative concepts,
- preparing statutory citations and tables, and
- identifying errors in grammar and spelling—
- all while conforming to very strict style guidelines.

In addition to the basic tasks required to integrate new laws into the Code, other duties may be required, such as reviewing drafts of bills to enact titles as positive law, doing extensive research and editorial work to improve the organization of existing provisions in the Code, and assisting in the continuing modernization of the Office, including support of online and machine readable versions of the Code.

Qualifications

- J.D. degree and attorney license in any U.S. jurisdiction or intention to obtain license within one year.
- At least one year of professional experience in editing or publishing, preferably in the legal field.

- Meticulous attention to detail and dedication to accuracy.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Absolute proficiency in grammar, spelling, and usage.
- Ability to analyze and summarize complex legal issues.
- Ability to identify issues affecting Federal statutes and explain them clearly and concisely within firmly established parameters.

Other conditions to note:

Familiarity with Federal or State statutory law is highly desirable.

This position is better suited to someone able to engage in extended periods of solitary work, often involving tedious and repetitive tasks.

The ability to adhere to, and function comfortably within, established styles and practices is essential.

Please be aware that this is a long-term career position with the Office, not a stepping stone to another position within Congress or the Federal Government.

Applicant Instructions

Qualified candidates should submit a resume and cover letter with salary requirements to:

uscodeapplicant@mail.house.gov

Applicants will be evaluated based on the ability to meet the qualifications stated above. Significant weight will be given to the applicant's cover letter. If chosen for an interview, an applicant will be requested to submit a writing sample.
