INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of July 23, 2018

MEM-237-18 The Office of Representative Jason Lewis (MN-02) is accepting applications for unpaid Full-Time/Part-Time Interns to work Fall 2018 in his district office in Burnsville, MN. In the district office, interns may be asked to do a variety of things including day-to-day office work such as answering phones, writing letters, and assisting with constituent intake. In addition, interns may be assigned to assist with constituent casework or work on district-based projects of importance. Ideally, candidates should be motivated, meticulous, and have an eagerness to learn. Internships can be part-time with flexible hours to accommodate student course schedules.

Although this internship is unpaid, academic credit may also be available based on the candidate's academic institution. Interested candidates should email a resume and cover letter to angela.sedlacek@mail.house.gov.

MEM-235-18 Chicago based Democrat Mike Quigley (IL-05) is seeking interns for the fall semester in his Washington, DC office. Candidates should possess an interest in the legislative process, excellent writing and communication skills, and a desire to work in a fast-paced environment.

Interns will work closely with the Congressman's legislative team to conduct research, draft letters and policy memos. Responsibilities also include answering phone calls, drafting constituent correspondence, leading tours of the U.S. Capitol, and related administrative work. Interns will have the opportunity to attend briefings, hearings, and other legislative events.

Individuals with Chicago ties are strongly encouraged to apply. Qualified candidates should email their cover letters and resumes to Isabella.Spinozzi@mail.house.gov with the subject "Fall Internship Application." Although our application process is rolling, please be advised that preference will be given to those who submit their applications by July 31st.

MEM-234-18 West Coast Republican seeks a highly motivated individual with exceptional organizational skills and multitasking ability to serve as a paid intern in their Washington, D.C. office. This position requires an individual to provide excellent constituent service. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: greeting constituents and meetings, tours and other information, answering telephone calls and taking messages, processing mail, maintaining the front office, and general office administrative duties. The successful candidate must be courteous and work well in a team environment. Please e-mail your resume and cover letter to westcoastgopinternship@gmail.com.

MEM-233-18 Member of Democratic leadership is currently seeking candidates for a full and/or part-time social media fellow in his Washington, D.C. office, with positions available starting in late July/early August.

The social media fellow will work closely with a fast-moving press shop for a prominent Member of Congress and will be expected to contribute significantly. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: designing content for a variety of platforms (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.), creating videos and highlight reels to highlight the Member's legislative accomplishments, and working to engage different audiences in the Congressman's work through different and innovative new-media approaches.

The social media fellow MUST be able to execute quickly in order to capitalize on legislative success or trending moments. He/she will work closely with press staff, but will be expected to complete assignments with a minimum of supervision required. Furthermore, the successful candidate will be proactive in proposing new content and news means to reach different audiences.

Women and minority candidates are particularly encouraged to apply. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, disability or age. Please, no calls or walk-ins.

This is an unpaid position; however, opportunities for school credit are available if needed and social media fellows will also gain valuable exposure to the operations of a well-known House office. Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and two digital/video samples to newyork08resumes@gmail.com with “Social Media Fellow” in the subject line.

MEM-232-18 Member of Democratic leadership is currently seeking candidates for full and part-time press internships in his Washington, D.C. office, with positions available starting late July/early August.

Interns will work closely with a fast-moving press shop for a prominent Member of Congress and will be expected to contribute significantly. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: compiling daily press clips, preparing background research on media requests and other projects as required.

This is NOT a typical Congressional internship. Interns will work closely with press staff to create high-level content. Ideal candidates will be aggressive in their pursuit of assigned tasks, have a strong work ethic, and will submit meticulously-prepared material. New York State ties are preferred, but not required.

Women and minority candidates are particularly encouraged to apply. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, disability or age. Please, no calls or walk-ins.

MEM-231-18 The Democratic Staff of the House Committee on Natural Resources is accepting applications for unpaid, Full-Time Legislative Interns for the Fall 2018 term. While working with the Committee, interns are provided the unique opportunity to learn and experience the Congressional legislative process. Applicants must be able to follow direction, work independently, possess clear and concise writing skills, excellent research capabilities, and exceptional interpersonal skills.

Duties and responsibilities include:

- Research legislative policy issues
- Attend committee hearings, markups, briefings, and meetings
- Conduct background studies
- Perform stakeholder outreach
- Answer phone calls
- Sort and distribute mail
- Compile data and statistics
- Draft correspondence
- Assemble committee documents
- Track House floor proceedings

Committee internships run concurrently with college semesters and/or quarters; from September - December for fall/winter internships. Our office hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Internships are unpaid but may be used for college credit. Interns are responsible for lodging and transportation.

To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample addressed to Omar Toro. Title your email with the subject line "Legislative Internship Application" and send to nrdems@mail.house.gov.

MEM-230-18 The office of Rep. Sean Patrick Maloney (D-NY-18) is looking for a digital/press intern who can assist in executing an aggressive communications strategy. Applicants should have excellent organizational skills and strong research, writing, and communication skills. Ideal candidates are college students, recent graduates, or graduate students with experience using the Adobe Suite – especially Adobe Premiere. Graphic design and photography experience are a plus.

Minorities, women, and LGBTQ persons are strongly encouraged to apply.

Primary Duties:

- Assisting with graphic design, video production, video editing
- Drafting social media content (i.e. facebook, twitter, instagram)
- Taking photos of and recording events
- Managing press lists, including creating issue-specific press lists
- Compiling press clips, assisting with other Comms Shop projects

Please send a resume and cover letter to nyinterns18@gmail.com with the subject line "FALL PRESS INTERNSHIP". Please note that this internship is unpaid.

MEM-229-18 In the Washington, DC office, internships run throughout the fall, spring or summer semesters for college students. Although all internships in all offices are unpaid, students gain invaluable work experience. The hours are flexible to accommodate students' hectic course schedules, but generally run 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. when Congress is in session, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. when not in session.

In Washington, DC, interns' responsibilities will vary. They will be asked to answer phones, run errands, research legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings, and answer constituent letters on various issues before the House. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

U.S. Representative for the State of Montana. Greg Gianforte has a track record as a businessman and entrepreneur, having launched and operated five successful companies. Greg and his wife, Susan, founded their latest company, RightNow Technologies, a cloud-based software provider, in their Montana home over 20 years ago. The company grew into Bozeman's largest commercial employer, creating over 500 high-paying jobs. Greg continues to mentor aspiring entrepreneurs across the state. As an electrical engineer, Greg has been solving hard problems for decades. Greg's top priorities are making sure the voices of Montana are heard in Washington and protecting the Montana way of life from federal overreach. Greg is focused on bringing accountability to Washington, which has forgotten that the power rests with the people, not special interests. He supports enacting term limits, banning members of Congress from becoming lobbyists, and requiring members of Congress to balance the budget or not get paid. Greg and Susan have been married for 29 years and raised their four children in Bozeman, Montana. A strong supporter of Montana's public lands, Greg is an avid outdoorsman and sportsman. He enjoys hiking, hunting, fishing, and backpacking. Greg could not have asked for a better place to raise his family and build his business than Montana. Sworn into Congress in 2017, Greg is honored and humbled to represent the people of Montana, and serves on the House Committee on Natural Resources as well as the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform.

Interested candidates should apply at <https://gianforte.house.gov/services/internships> to be considered.
