

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service (HVAPS)

B-235 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515
202-226-5836

Vacancy Bulletins are available for pick-up in Longworth HOB - B-227 (CAO First Call Customer Service Center) or in the CAO Human Resources Office - Ford HOB 102.

To Subscribe or Unsubscribe to the Vacancy Listserv visit:

<http://www.house.gov/content/jobs/>

Job Line: 202-226-4504

MEMBER AND COMMITTEE VACANCY LISTING

Week of February 9, 2015

- MEM-049-15 Pennsylvania Republican seeks press secretary in Washington, D.C. office. Duties include performing day-to-day operations of an active press office, including new media, drafting press releases, e-newsletters, talking points, and columns. Candidates must have Hill or campaign experience. PA ties preferred. Send resume, writing sample, and cover letter to PA.Resumes@mail.house.gov.
- MEM-048-15 North Carolina Democratic Congresswoman seeks an experienced Communications Director. The ideal applicant will be an excellent writer and editor with a proven ability to prioritize and handle multiple tasks in a fast-paced environment, while meeting tight deadlines. Responsibilities include: planning and implementing national and local media strategies, managing social media platforms, writing press releases, talking points, op-eds and other materials. Candidate must build and maintain excellent relationships with members of the national and local media and editorial boards and have on-the-record experience. This is not an entry-level position; Hill experience is highly desired. Please send resume and two writing samples to NCCongressionalJobs@gmail.com. No phone calls, e-mails or walk-ins, please. Minorities and women encouraged to apply, North Carolina ties preferred.

MEM-044-15

Florida Democrat seeks Communications Director to serve in his D.C. office. The Communications Director will coordinate all press activities, serve as the primary spokesperson for the Representative, and manage national media. The Communications Director will work with the Orlando-based Press Secretary to execute messaging strategies and media activities in the district.

Candidates should be proactive, and possess superior written and oral communication skills (including strong writing, editing, and proofreading capabilities). The ideal candidate will have prior political experience and at least two years of professional communications work with national media experience.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Establishing and maintaining relationships with national and D.C.-based media
- Coordinating all media efforts and communications-related events
- Drafting and distributing press releases and media advisories; drafting, editing, and placing op-eds
- Pitching stories to reporters, responding to press inquiries, and serving as the point-of-contact for national press
- Monitoring media narratives and identifying opportunities to promote the Member
- Overseeing franked communications strategy, including: the drafting, design, and distribution of franked mail content; executing telephone town hall events; and managing congressional e-newsletter
- Managing the congressional website and ensuring that it features timely content
- Coordinating and staffing the Congressman for interviews and events (including night and weekend commitments)

To apply:

Please send a current résumé, cover letter, salary requirement, two writing samples (not to exceed one page each), and three references to FL09job@gmail.com. No calls, emails or walk-ins, please.

MEM-043-15

New Mexico Democrat seeks qualified candidates for Scheduler/Executive Assistant in fast-paced Washington, D.C. office. Responsibilities will include maintaining the Member's daily and long-term schedule in D.C. and District Office, organizing and tracking invitations, speaking engagements and scheduling requests, and coordinating travel arrangements. In addition, the scheduler/executive assistant will be responsible for coordinating with staff to ensure the timely completion of speeches and meeting memos, handling the Member's personal correspondence, occasional driving of the member in D.C. and various additional duties as assigned by the Member or Chief of Staff. Candidates must be highly organized and detail-oriented, possess excellent verbal and written communication skills, and be able to multitask and work well in a team-oriented environment. Previous Capitol Hill scheduling or full-time executive assistant experience (or equivalent) is preferred. New Mexico ties are a plus. Salary is commensurate with experience and within the structure of House Office Budgets.

Candidates must be willing to work extended hours at times and driving duties are required. Some travel to the district is expected. To apply, please email, with the subject line "Scheduler/Executive Assistant," to NM01.Resumes@mail.house.gov with your resume and cover letter in a single document (word or .pdf only.) Only complete applications will be considered.

Deadline to apply for the position is Wednesday, February 11, 2015. No phone calls or drop-ins.

MEM-041-15

The Joint Economic Committee Democratic staff seeks a Communications Director with 5 or more years of experience in political communications or a closely-related field. He or she must have a proven ability to work with national print and broadcast reporters – a deep rolodex is a big plus. A successful candidate must be an innovative thinker with an ability to turn complex issues into stories suitable for print, television and radio. He or she must demonstrate excellent writing and editing skills and must possess a strong portfolio of press releases, statements, op-eds and other pieces. Knowledge of economic issues as well as significant coursework in economics is strongly desired. Experience with social media and graphics design is helpful but not required.

Salary is commensurate with experience. Equal opportunity employer. Please submit a cover letter, resume and two short writing samples to: joint_economic_committee-dems_press@jec.senate.gov.

MEM-040-15

Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard is seeking an energetic and talented individual with a genuine commitment to public service for the Field Director position in her Los Angeles-area district office in the City of Commerce.

Responsibilities include supervising field staff, a portfolio of issue and geographic areas, working w/ the District Chief of Staff in developing an aggressive constituent outreach plan, monitoring the district and updating the Member, Chief of Staff and District Chief on district and local issues.

Candidates should possess previous supervisory experience; excellent organizational and communication skills; ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines; flexibility with priorities and ever changing deadlines; detail orientation; and ability to meet attendance requirements including a varied and often unpredictable work schedule. Pluses include knowledge of immigration, Spanish proficiency and familiarity with South LA.

Interested applicants should submit their cover letter, resume and one writing sample via email to: CA40Resumes@mail.house.gov

Salary commensurate with experience. No calls or drop-ins.

MEM-038-15

Congresswoman Donna F. Edwards seeks a Legislative Correspondent for an active mail program. Individual will be responsible for drafting all constituent correspondence and potentially providing policy support to the Legislative Assistants. Candidate should have excellent writing ability, superior researching skills, and understanding of the legislative process in order to provide thoughtful and substantive responses to constituent correspondence. Hill background, experience with Intranet Quorum, and Maryland ties a plus. Please send your resume, a cover letter (include salary requirements), two writing samples (maximum of two-pages each), and a list of three references to chris.schloesser@mail.house.gov with "Legislative Correspondent Position" in the subject line. No phone calls or drop bys, please.

MEM-034-15

The Office of Rep. Justin Amash (R-MI) seeks a bright, creative, and hard-working legislative assistant to join our Washington, D.C.-based policy team.

The legislative assistant will draft legislation, analyze bills, and meet with constituents concerning policy matters, among other duties. The legislative assistant will be expected to handle a diverse portfolio of policy issues, which can be tailored somewhat to the staffer's expertise and interests.

The successful candidate will demonstrate a strong commitment to individual liberty, economic freedom, and the defense of the Constitution. He or she also must be an excellent writer and clear thinker willing to take on the most serious impediments to a freer, more prosperous America. Candidates who prefer staid and steady work or who avoid challenges (and the occasional failure) may be more comfortable elsewhere.

Candidates must have a B.A. or equivalent, and we prefer candidates with some policy experience, although Hill experience is not required. This is not an entry-level position.

To apply, please send a resume and cover letter to mi03.apply@gmail.com.

MEM-030-15

Seeking Legislate Assistant for Small Business & Finance.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES:

- to develop and plan legislative initiatives especially around small business and tax issues;
- to monitor legislative developments within Committees and on the House floor;
- to write floor speeches for the Member;
- extensive knowledge of federal/state workforce issues and organized labor;
- ability to draft statements for the Member;
- to draft constituent correspondence for the Member; and
- to meet with constituents and special interest groups on behalf of the Member.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- at least two (2) years of legislative experience not including internships;
- strong academic credentials focused on business, tax and/or energy;
- excellent oral and written communication skills;
- thorough knowledge of the legislative process;
- ability to exercise discretion and independent judgment in the formulation and recommendation of policy positions for the Member on small business, federal tax and/or energy issues;
- ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others;
- ability to work well under pressure;
- able to support a progressive caucus agenda;
- reliable transportation;
- ability to work in, and support a team environment;
- thoroughness and careful attention to detail; and
- availability to work long hours during the week and occasionally on weekends.

DUTIES:

- formulates legislative initiatives for assigned issue areas which includes:
 - devising a legislative plan;
 - drafting the plan into legislative form;
 - planning, coordinating and scheduling introduction of legislation in the House (or offering it on an appropriate vehicle if it is an amendment);
 - gathering support for a bill or amendment from other Members, as well as appropriate interest groups;
 - working with committees on legislation;
 - coordinating legislative support to get the bill passed in the House.
- tracks legislation and other developments in his or her assigned issue areas and briefs the Member for floor work, committee work, work in the district, and outside House-related activities;
- monitors legislative developments within committees;
- plans and coordinates co-sponsorship and support of other legislation;
- monitors legislation on the House floor, providing the Member with information on each vote;
- writes Floor speeches for the Member;

- if assigned to issues pending before a specific committee, prepares for and attends committee meetings and hearings with or without the Member (i.e., keeps in contact with committee staff and meets with interest groups and constituents with interests in such meetings);
- acts as liaison with committee and agency staffs;
- performs special projects assigned by the Member or Chief of Staff / Legislative Counsel;
- meets with constituents and interest groups;
- provides information on and generates ideas for press, mass mailings, and newsletters;
- answers constituent letters and helps constituents on federal matters;
- performs other duties as assigned; and
- Preference for applicants from Michigan.

SEND RESUMES AND ONE WRITING SAMPLE TO:

CapitolHill14@gmail.com

MEM-023-15

Republican Committee Staff is seeking applications for a Legislative Assistant position to serve as the junior member of the Committee's tax policy group. Primary responsibilities include administrative and clerking duties, active responsiveness to Member office requests, and contribution to materials for member meetings, hearings, markups, draft legislation, and other committee business. JD, CPA, and/or tax experience preferred. Recent law school graduates with a strong interest in tax welcome to apply. Please submit a resume and one brief writing sample to GOPTaxLA@gmail.com.

MEM-020-15

Senior, Progressive, Democratic Ways and Means Committee Member has an opening for a Tax and Finance Counsel/ Advisor to handle tax, pension, financial services, small business, immigration, and homeland security policy.

This is not an entry-level position. Ideal candidates have Congressional experience and substantive tax policy/ legal knowledge. Applicants should be strong writers with the abilities to learn quickly, multi-task, and work independently in a fluid environment. Great interpersonal skills and a good sense of humor are a requisite. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Candidates should be prepared to start as soon as possible. Please email a cover letter, resume, and references to leg.job@mail.house.gov. No phone calls or drop-ins.

MEM-018-15

Progressive Democratic Member seeks an organized, energetic and savvy Legislative Assistant to handle a broad portfolio focusing on issues concerning our domestic agenda – including health care, the economic development of America's legacy cities, and immigration. This position requires flexibility and the desire to learn about a number of diverse issues required to push the Member's goals forward. The selected individual will be joining a fast-paced, team-oriented Washington, D.C. office.

Duties include monitoring legislative developments on the House floor; developing and advancing legislation and other policy priorities of the Member; contributing to floor speeches and other external communications; researching and advising the Member on bills and other issues; representing the Member in meetings; and drafting constituent correspondence. Applicants must have superior organizational skills, strong written and oral communication skills, and strong interpersonal skills. They should also be able to multi-task and thrive in a fast paced environment, and have poise, patience and a sense of humor. Michigan ties a plus.

This is a one year temporary position, but with the potential for permanent placement.

Please email a resume and cover letter to Michigan05jobs@gmail.com with "Legislative Assistant" in the subject line.

MEM-009-15

Senior Democrat seeks candidates for the position of Communications Director/Policy Advisor for a fast-paced and highly engaged office. The successful candidate will have excellent written and verbal skills, the proven ability to manage multiple communications projects, and the ability to exercise discretion and independent judgment in the representation of the Member's position on policy issues. S/he will be responsible for developing, managing and coordinating all communications activities, including writing press releases, op-eds, mail pieces, talking points, organizing press events, maintaining the official website, implementing social media strategy, maintaining press database, writing e-newsletters & coordinating Tele-town halls. Duties will also include briefing the Member for interviews, writing and implementing PSAs, interacting with the press as the Member's principal spokesperson and coordinating the Member's overall press relations. The ideal candidate will have Hill experience, a depth of legislative and policy knowledge including that of the appropriations process, and Ohio connections of benefit. Candidates must be able to work extended hours and under time pressure, while maintaining a positive attitude and demeanor. Please submit resume, cover letter, two writing samples, and salary requirements to Midwestern.Resume@mail.house.gov with "Communication Director/Policy Advisor" in the subject line. No walk-ins or phone calls.

MEM-007-15

Progressive Senior Appropriator seeks a Legislative Director to lead staff in a team-oriented office and serve as liaison to DHS appropriations subcommittee.

Responsibilities: supervise day to day activity of legislative staff; contribute to office communications plan; proactively promote the office legislative agenda; manage a personal legislative issue portfolio which may include homeland security, defense, civil rights, judiciary, trade and foreign affairs among others; and perform other related duties as assigned.

Candidates should possess thorough knowledge of the legislative process and House procedures; previous supervisory experience; excellent organizational and communication skills; ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines; flexibility with priorities and ever changing deadlines; detail orientation; and ability to meet attendance requirements including a varied and often unpredictable work schedule.

Pluses include knowledge of immigration/DHS issues, California ties and Spanish proficiency. People of color, women and LGBT persons strongly encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants should submit via email the following documents: cover letter, resume and one writing sample. Care should be taken to include each document as a separate attachment in the same email to: SoCalDCstaffOpening@mail.house.gov.

MEM-414-14

The Committee on Ethics seeks an experienced attorney to serve as the Director of Investigations for the Committee. The Director will manage the Committee's nonpartisan staff of attorneys and other professionals who are responsible for conducting investigations and adjudicatory and disciplinary proceedings regarding Members and staff of the U.S. House of Representatives. This is a nonpartisan position which requires the ability to serve all Members of Congress equally and refrain from political or partisan activity. Candidates must possess a minimum of 5 years of experience with complex investigations, outstanding analytical and written and oral communication skills, and the sound judgment necessary to evaluate the sensitive matters that arise before the Committee. Experience in one or more of the following areas is also desirable: government ethics, criminal law, civil litigation, administrative investigations and adjudications, depositions, and familiarity with Congress and its unique institutional prerogatives. Previous management experience preferred. Salary commensurate with experience. Please email resume, cover letter, and short writing sample to ethicsjobs@mail.house.gov. Please include the phrase "Director of Investigations" in the subject line.

MEM-409-14

Congressman Xavier Becerra is seeking to immediately fill a full-time job opening for a Senior Field Deputy position in his district office. The Senior Field Deputy serves as the congressman's liaison with the community, local organizations and government agencies; staff and/or represent the congressman at events; advise the congressman about local issues; help organize community based meetings and events; implement proactive constituent outreach program; prepare Member for speeches and Meetings; draft correspondence. Supervise field team and district activities. This position may require work hours beyond the normal 8-hour work day and may also include work on weekends and holidays.

Qualifications

- Strong written, communication, analytical, and organization skills; an ability to relate well with individuals of diverse backgrounds; impeccable customer service manners; and superior public speaking skills.
- Prefer four years of experience working directly with the community at large. Supervisorial experience required.
- Good computer skills, including proficiency and experience with Microsoft Word, Excel, Outlook, Publisher and Power Point.
- Bachelor's degree preferred.
- Candidate must have a thorough understanding of government agencies and structure (county, state and federal).
- Must be able to work efficiently and effectively as a member of a team, be able to meet strict deadlines, balance multiple projects simultaneously and work under pressure. Attention to detail and accuracy is essential.
- Candidate should demonstrate a positive attitude, commitment to excellence, upbeat demeanor and flexibility.
- Candidate should expect weekend, some holidays, and after-hours assignments.
- Salary will depend on the experience of the applicant.

All interested individuals should email or fax a cover letter, resume (including salary history) to: Resume.California@mail.house.gov or fax (213) 481-1429. No phone calls please.