INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of June 18, 2018

MEM-168-18 The House Democratic Caucus is currently accepting intern applications for the 2018 Fall Semester. This is a full time internship that requires a flexible schedule and the ability to travel. Our internship term runs from late august to mid-December. Interns will assist with weekly Caucus meetings, Member outreach, and legislative work. Event planning and general logistics coordination will be central components of the internship. Interns will also handle front office duties such as answering phones, distributing mail, coordinating Capitol tours, and greeting visitors. Qualified applicants must possess a pleasant attitude, attention to detail, and a great work ethic. Candidates with prior Hill experience, great writing skills, and strong familiarity with House Democrats are preferred.

Please email a cover letter and resume in PDF Form to CaucusInternResume@mail.house.gov with your availability. Include “2018 Fall Democratic Caucus Internship” in the subject line. Our application process is rolling, but applicants should be advised that priority will be given to those that submit their applications by July 9th.

MEM-167-18 The office of Congressman Walter B. Jones (NC-03) is currently seeking applicants for an internship in either his Washington, D.C. or Greenville, N.C. office for the Fall 2018 term. Interns in the Washington office help draft constituent correspondence, attend briefings and Congressional hearings, and function as a key part of the staff. Interns also assist with answering phone calls, providing tours of the Capitol, and organizing the constituent flag request our office receives. In the state office, interns will interact with constituents, work with federal agencies, and participate in outreach projects in order to resolve problems facing the people of Eastern North Carolina, as well as assist the staff with various administrative tasks. We're looking for college students or recent graduates who are motivated, detail-orientated, and ready to work in a fast paced setting. The ideal candidate possesses strong organizational, communication, and writing skills, as well as the ability to manage multiple tasks and work well under pressure in a team environment. A positive attitude and an interest in politics is a must. Although the internship is unpaid, you will gain valuable professional experience and an inside look at the lawmaking process on Capitol Hill. Academic credit is available for qualifying students. North Carolina and/or military ties are preferred, but not required. Interested candidates should apply at www.jones.house.gov by July 15th.

MEM-166-18 Congressman John Garamendi (CA-03) is seeking highly motivated interns to join his Washington, DC office this fall. Candidates should be collegial, professional, quick learners, and phenomenal team players. Strong oral and written communication skills and close attention to detail are imperative. Duties include assisting staff with legislative, administrative, and press related projects, writing memos and talking points, attending hearings and meetings, answering constituent phone calls, leading tours of the US Capitol, assisting with scheduling, sorting and distributing mail, and managing tour and flag requests.

Interns are considered an integral part of the team and are given the opportunity to learn and grow through working with us both to achieve the goals of the office and to pursue and develop their areas of interest. First-hand experience in Congressman Garamendi's congressional office provides interns with an unparalleled knowledge and understanding of the development of public policy. Full-time candidates with California ties and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to Garamendi.Internships@mail.house.gov.

MEM-165-18 The Office of Rep. Paul Tonko (NY-20) is seeking unpaid legislative interns for the Fall Semester. Qualified candidates have academic or professional experience in American politics, can work on extremely short deadlines, and excel at most or all of the following: writing, editing, and event support.

Intern duties will include assisting with administrative and legislative tasks, answering phones, processing mail, providing capitol tours, and attending briefings. Preference will be given to residents of the 20th district and Upstate New Yorkers. Interested applicants should email a cover letter, resume, 1-3 page writing sample, and dates of availability to katie.greenberg@mail.house.gov with "Fall Internship" in the subject field.

MEM-164-18 The Office of Rep. Paul Tonko (NY-20) is seeking an unpaid press intern to assist with fast-paced communications operation for Fall 2018. Qualified candidates have academic or professional experience in American politics, can work on extremely short deadlines, and excel at most or all of the following: writing, editing, event support, social media (esp. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) and photography.

Intern duties may include:

- Daily press clips
- Answering phones
- Drafting documents for distribution to media
- Messaging & interview prep documents
- Social media content development
- Event photography
- ...and more!

Interested applicants should email a cover letter, resume, 1-3 page writing sample and dates of availability to katie.greenberg@mail.house.gov with "Press Internship" in the subject field.

MEM-163-18 The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Science, Space, and Technology is currently accepting applications for full-time interns for Fall 2018 and Spring 2019. Interns are asked to work with staff to help prepare for committee hearings and markups, and will work on substantive research and oversight projects in addition to press matters. Candidates should be detail oriented, possess strong oral and written communication skills, be able to multitask, and work well in a fast-paced environment. Please no calls or drop-ins.
