

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service (HVAPS)

B-235 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515
202-226-5836

Vacancy Bulletins are available for pick-up in Longworth HOB - B-227 (CAO First Call Customer Service Center) or in the CAO Human Resources Office - Ford HOB 102
To Subscribe or Unsubscribe to the Vacancy Listserv visit:

<http://www.house.gov/content/jobs/>

Job Line: 202-226-4504

INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING
Week of August 22, 2016

- MEM-266-16 The House Committee on Energy and Commerce Democratic Staff seeks a qualified graduate or undergraduate press intern for the fall semester 2016. An internship with the House Energy and Commerce Committee is designed to give students a thorough understanding of a Congressional committee's role in the legislative process. Press interns will compile daily news clips, draft news releases and social media content, conduct research, and assist with administrative tasks such as updating media lists. In addition, interns will have the opportunity to shadow staff at hearings, media briefings or media events on subjects within the Committee's broad jurisdiction. A background in journalism, public relations or general communications is preferred, but not required. If you are interested in applying, please send a resume, cover letter, and two references to InternshipResume.EC@mail.house.gov.
- MEM-265-16 Representative Debbie Dingell (D-MI) is seeking a full-time congressional intern for her Washington, D.C. office for fall 2016 (September-December). This internship position will provide individuals the opportunity to work in a fast-paced Congressional office while receiving hands-on political experience. Duties include answering phones, leading U.S. Capitol tours and assisting staff members with research and special projects. There will also be frequent opportunities to attend legislative hearings of personal interest. The ideal candidate will be motivated; detail orientated and possesses strong communication and writing skills. This is a great opportunity for college students or recent graduates seeking Hill experience. Michigan ties are preferred. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to kevin.dollhopf@mail.house.gov.

MEM-264-16 The Office of Congressman Jody Hice (R-GA) is seeking full-time and part-time interns for the 2016 Fall Semester. Applicants should be motivated, detail-oriented, and energetic with excellent oral and written communication skills. Individuals should demonstrate strong interpersonal skills and ability to manage multiple tasks, possess strong computing skills, and have a sound work ethic. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: answering and screening telephone calls, organizing and managing the front office, greeting constituents and visitors, giving tours of the Capitol, monitoring media hits, writing constituent letters and social media posts, assisting with the planning, preparation and execution of Member events and appearances, assisting staff with special projects, research and assignments, attending community events, and other duties as necessary. Although the internship is unpaid, interns will gain valuable firsthand experience in a Congressional setting. Georgia ties are preferred, but not required. Hours are flexible, and can be shaped around class and work commitments. Interested applicants should send their resume and cover letter to: Nadgey.Louis-Charles@mail.house.gov. In the subject Line, please put First Name Last Name: Internship Application.

MEM-263-16 The office of a New York Congressman seeks an unpaid press intern with exceptional writing and editing skills. Duties will include: authoring interesting and creative content for the website on various topics and other tasks as assigned. The intern must be highly motivated and have excellent writing and communication skills. All interested and qualified candidates should email a resume and three writing samples. Please submit all inquiries with the subject "Press Internship" to: NY.ResumeInbox@mail.house.gov.

MEM-262-16 The Office of Congressman Michael Capuano (D-MA) is looking for full-time interns to aid our administrative and legislative team at the Washington, D.C. office. Responsibilities include: researching legislative issues, attending legislative hearings, answering phone calls, processing constituent mail, leading tours of the U.S. Capitol, and assisting in any other special projects/tasks that may arise. Applicants should be self-motivated, reliable, hardworking, and have strong communication skills. Massachusetts ties preferred, but not required. Fall internships start in late August and run through December. Internships are unpaid, but academic credit is available. Interested candidates should submit a resume, cover letter, and a one-page writing sample in PDF format to eliza.ramirez@mail.house.gov.

MEM-261-16 Democratic Member of the House seeks an unpaid intern for their DC office. Responsibilities include assisting staff with general office duties, drafting constituent correspondence, attending briefings and hearings, answering phones, researching legislative issues, giving Capitol tours, greeting visitors and performing various other tasks. Candidates should be energetic, enthusiastic and able to thrive in a fast-paced working environment. Strong communication skills are a must. Candidates should have a general understanding of the governmental process, knowledge of North Carolina, and interest in the legislative process. If interested, please send a cover letter, resume, and writing sample via email to: nc12internjobs@gmail.com. Absolutely no phone calls or walk-ins. Minorities, LGBT and women are encouraged to apply. North Carolina ties preferred, but not required.

MEM-260-16 Ohio Democrat is seeking interns for the Winter 2016 semester. Interns will work in a fast-paced Congressional Office, gaining valuable exposure and knowledge of the legislative process and the United States Congress. Interns will have the opportunity to conduct legislative research, assist with correspondence, as well as attend some Capitol Hill briefings, congressional hearings, and press events. Responsibilities will include handling constituent phone calls, opening and sorting mail, giving Capitol Tours, and assisting staff with administrative tasks. This internship is unpaid. Qualifications: Interns must have a pleasant attitude, strong work ethic, and excellent written and oral communication skills. Successful interns will be able to find information with little assistance, be able to work both independently as well as part of a team, and have strong attention to detail.

9th District Ohio ties a plus!

Please email Courtney.hruska@Mail.house.gov with cover letter and resume. Availability must be in cover letter. All components must be submitted for consideration.

MEM-259-16 A Member of the House Financial Services Committee is currently seeking full – or part – time interns for the fall 2016 semester in Washington DC. Intern responsibilities include answering phone calls, greeting visitors, leading tours of the Capitol, drafting letters to constituents, and helping conduct research for various administrative projects. Ideal candidates will have a meticulous attention to detail, strong writing skills, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an enthusiasm for the political process and congressional operations. Internships are unpaid, but can serve as a first-step towards a career on Capitol Hill. Ties to the Pacific Northwest preferred but not required. Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and availability with the subject line “Fall 2016 Internship” to houseintern16@gmail.com.

MEM-258-16 Congressman Coffman seeks hard-working, enthusiastic legislative interns for the Fall 2016 semester in his Washington, DC office. Interns are responsible for: giving tours of the U.S. Capitol, answering constituent calls, sorting constituent correspondence, assisting legislative staff with research and writing, processing U.S. flag requests, attending Congressional briefings and hearings, and attending events with the Congressman as necessary. Applicants should have strong written and oral communication skills, exceptional interpersonal skills, and have demonstrable interest in public policy and government. Attractive applicants will have completed at least 60 credit hours of undergraduate coursework. Those with Colorado ties and professional proficiency in Spanish are encouraged to apply. Applicants should be aware that this is an unpaid internship that tentatively lasts from September through December 2016. To apply, please visit: <http://coffman.house.gov/services/internships>.

MEM-257-16 The Office of Congressman Jared Polis (CO-02) is currently seeking full or part time interns for the Fall 2016 semester in his Washington, D.C. office. The internship is scheduled to run from August to December, but can vary depending on the candidate's availability. Ideal candidates would be reliable, professional, and possess strong writing and communication skills. Candidates must be willing to work in a fast paced environment and be prepared to assist legislative and communications staff as necessary. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: sorting constituent correspondence, conducting Capitol tours, answering phones, attending hearings and briefings, and drafting constituent letters. Internships are unpaid, but offer a great opportunity to gain professional experience and learn more about the legislative process. Undergraduate students or recent college graduates preferred. Colorado ties a plus, but not required. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter in PDF form to: tom.clancy@mail.house.gov.

MEM-255-16 The office of Congressman Jeff Fortenberry (NE-01) is seeking full and part-time interns for the fall semester in its DC office. Interns engage in a variety of tasks, and their responsibilities are assigned based on interests, capabilities, and the needs of the office. Interns will have the opportunity to hone their legislative research and writing skills and interact with senior legislative staff; attend hearings and briefings on Capitol Hill; assist with media/communications tasks and gain proficiency in IQ; and participate in our office's top priority, constituent outreach, by leading tours, greeting visitors, and answering phones. Exceptional interns in the past have gotten opportunities to write constituent letters and contribute to constituent and staff meetings on and around Capitol Hill. If you are interested in applying for one of the most robust internship programs on the Hill, please submit a cover letter including the reason you would like an internship in Congressman Fortenberry's office, your résumé, two writing samples, and references to NE01internships@gmail.com.

MEM-254-16 Congressman Alcee L. Hastings (FL-20) is seeking enthusiastic and highly motivated applicants for a full or part-time unpaid internship for Fall 2016. Candidates should possess a strong interest in the legislative process. Strong oral and written skills and close attention to details are imperative. Interns are considered an integral part of the team and will have the opportunity to gain experience working on Capitol Hill and learn firsthand about the workings of a Congressional office. Responsibilities will include conducting legislative research, drafting memos and responses to letters from constituents, assisting constituents and visitors to the office, and attending briefings and hearings. Congressman Hastings supports students requesting credit for their internship through their school or university. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, writing sample and dates of availability to internship.alhastings@mail.house.gov with "2016 Fall Internship" in the subject line. No phone calls or walk-ins will be accepted.

- MEM-252-16 Moderate Senior Democratic member seeks unpaid interns for Fall 2016 (approx. September – December) in a fast-paced Congressional Office where they will gain valuable exposure to and knowledge of the legislative process and the United States Congress. Applicants should be positive, motivated, organized and reliable individuals willing to assist with the legislative and administrative needs of the staff. Duties include greeting constituents, answering phones, leading tours of the Capitol, opening and sorting mail, attending briefings, performing legislative research and various other tasks to assist staff. Applicants must have strong written and oral communication skills. Successful interns will be able to find information with little assistance, be able to work both independently as well as part of a team environment, and possess a strong attention to detail. Northern California connections are preferable. Please send resume, cover letter, and availability (both availability during the week as well as a start and end date), three references and a one page writing sample to DCIntern.Thompson@mail.house.gov with "Fall 2016 Internship" in the subject line. We will hire until spaces are filled. No phone calls please.
- MEM-251-16 The office of Representative Bruce Poliquin is accepting applications for internships in Washington, D.C. for Fall 2016. The internship will offer students and young professionals invaluable experience with the legislative process. Interns work side by side with experienced full-time staff, and play an integral part in the daily operations of the office. A typical day for our interns includes welcoming folks to the office, researching legislation for the Congressman and policy staff, and answering constituent calls and letters on various issues before the House. Ties to Maine are preferred, but not required. Interested candidates should send their resume and cover letter to Poliquin.internship@mail.house.gov.
- MEM-250-16 The Committee on Education and the Workforce, Democrats is a legislative office in the U.S. House of Representatives. The Committee has jurisdiction over a broad array of education and labor policy areas, including K-12 education, higher education, employer/employee relations, worker safety, and employer provided health care. Representative Robert C. "Bobby" Scott (VA-03) serves as Ranking Member. The Committee on Education and the Workforce, Democrats is currently seeking graduate and legal interns and fellows to work on labor policy as well as general undergraduate interns for the fall of 2016. Legislative tasks may include, but are not limited to, legislative research, assembling information, assisting staff in hearing and markup preparation and execution, memo and legislative writing, and attending other hearings, markups, briefings and meetings for the purpose of taking notes.

Interested applicants should email their application materials to jobs_ewdems@mail.house.gov. Please include your resume, a cover letter and the internship applicant information form. Graduate students and fellows should also include two short, relevant writing samples.

Please visit our internship at <http://democrats-edworkforce.creative.house.gov/about/internships> for complete information on how to apply.

MEM-249-16 The Office of Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard (HI-02) is seeking a press intern for our Washington, D.C. office for the fall of 2016. Candidates should be well organized, have good oral and written communication skills, and possess a strong interest in learning about press operations, the political process, and congressional affairs. The intern will assist in the day-to-day operations of a DC Congressional office by supporting members of staff with press clips and constituent communication and will help to draft press releases, prep memos, and social media posts, in addition to assisting with legislative research and administrative activities. Hawaii ties are appreciated but not necessary. Please note that this internship is unpaid. Interested candidates should send a resume, writing sample, and cover letter to Andres.Chovil@mail.house.gov. No calls or walk-ins please.

MEM-248-16 Internship Position in House Democratic Caucus Chairman Xavier Becerra's Office Washington, D.C. — Rep. Xavier Becerra is looking for interns for his Leadership office to begin March or April. Responsibilities include (but are not limited to) transcribing videos, collecting press clips, live-streaming briefings, supporting the Operations team in preparing Caucus events, answering phones, providing constituency outreach support to Democratic Members of Congress and their staff, conducting research, extracting and formatting large quantities of data, writing detailed memos, attending relevant briefings and meetings, and assisting with team projects. Applicants should be motivated, detail-oriented, possess excellent verbal and written communication skills, and be able to problem solve and multi-task. Experience or interest in social media is a plus. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. Applicants must be either college/graduate students receiving academic credit or congressional internship/fellowship program participants. The intern should be prepared to start working in full-time. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to caucusinternresume@mail.house.gov.

MEM-247-16 The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Science, Space and Technology is seeking interns for the fall semester. Interns are asked to work with staff to help prepare for committee hearings and markups, and will work on substantive research and oversight projects in addition to press matters. Furthermore, interns will be critical to the daily operation of the office including tasks such as answering phones, greeting visitors, and filing official documents. Interested applicants should visit the Committee's website at <http://democrats.science.house.gov/internships>. Please fill out the provided application and attach a resume. No calls or drop-ins please.

- MEM-246-16 The Office of Congressman Brad Wenstrup is seeking interns for this fall. Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, answering phones, matching constituent mail to appropriate staffers, giving constituents tours of the Capitol, and writing memos for staff on policy briefings. Interns may also occasionally be asked to run errands for staff and complete special projects. Applicants should have a strong work ethic, excellent communication skills, and an interest in politics/policy. All interested should email a resume and cover letter to oh02interns@gmail.com.
- MEM-245-16 The Office of Congresswoman Eddie Bernice Johnson is seeking unpaid interns for the Fall 2016 semester in the Washington D.C. office. Responsibilities include assisting the administrative and legislative staff with writing, legislative research, constituent services, and attending various briefings and hearings. Candidates should be self-motivated, detail oriented, and possess strong oral and written communication skills. This is an excellent opportunity to gain experience on Capitol Hill while learning about the legislative process. Texas ties are preferred, but not required. If you are interested in this internship opportunity, please e-mail a cover letter, resume, references and a short writing sample to Nawaid.Ladak@mail.house.gov. Please no phone calls or walk-ins.
- MEM-244-16 The Office of Congressman Glenn Grothman (WI-06) is currently seeking full-time interns for fall of 2016 in the Washington D.C. office. Ideal candidates would be professional, dependable and possess strong writing and communication skills. Responsibilities include answering phones, constituent correspondence, Capitol tours and other legislative projects. Internships are unpaid, but serve to provide professional and educational value to participants. The office is flexible in allowing interns to attend hearings and briefings, as well as work with Legislative Assistants on issues of their interest. Candidates must be willing to work in a fast-paced environment and be interested in learning more about the legislative process. Wisconsin ties preferred, but not required. Interested applicants should send resume, cover letter and availability to wi06resumes@gmail.com.
- MEM-243-16 The office of Congressman Tom Reed (NY-23) is currently seeking full – or part – time interns for the Fall 2016 semester in his Washington D.C. office. The internship is scheduled to run from August to December, but can vary depending on the availability of the applicant. Ideal candidates should be professional, dependable, and possess strong communication skills. Intern responsibilities include answering phones, giving guided tours of the Capitol, constituent correspondence, attending hearing and briefings, and other legislative projects.

Internships are unpaid, but are a great opportunity to gain professional and educational experience. Candidates must be willing to work in a fast-paced environment and be interested in learning more about the legislative process. New York ties are a plus, but not required. Interested applicants should send their resume, cover letter, and a writing sample with the subject line “Fall Internship” to samara.brown@mail.house.gov.

MEM-242-16 Congresswoman Lois Frankel’s (FL-22) D.C. office seeks interns for the Fall semester. The ideal candidate possesses a high degree of professionalism and maturity, is committed and diligent, and is a team player with a positive attitude. This position demands the ability to multi-task, high efficiency and strong organizational skills as well as an ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others. Duties include: answering telephone calls, responding to general constituent inquiries and requests for tours, assisting with constituent correspondence, and providing administrative assistance to the DC staff. Undergraduate students or recent college graduates preferred, South Florida ties a plus. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter to: olivia.hodge@mail.house.gov.

MEM-241-16 Washington, D.C. — The House Democratic Caucus seeks a full-time press intern for intern for August 2016 and/or Fall 2016. Intern responsibilities include assisting with press clips, video production and editing, photography, graphic design, tracking metrics, transcribing interviews and supporting team projects.

Applicants should be self-starters, motivated, detail-oriented, possess excellent verbal and written communication skills, and be able to problem solve and multitask. Experience in Adobe Suite, particularly Photoshop, Illustrator, and Premiere, and proficiency in Spanish highly preferred.

Experience and interest in press operations and the congressional process is a plus. Minorities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Applicants must be either college/graduate students or Congressional internship program participants.

Interested candidates should send a resume, cover letter detailing availability, and references to elizabeth.lopez-sandoval@mail.house.gov.

MEM-240-16 Congressman Keith Ellison (D-MN) seeks a Legislative Fellow for a fast-paced and busy Washington, DC congressional office. The fellow will work on financial services issues including banking and capital markets, energy and environment, small business, Native American, arts and humanities, and other issues. Ideal candidates must have strong writing and verbal briefing skills, analytical skills and a proactive approach to current issues. The fellow should be punctual, responsible and trust-worthy. Candidates should have sharp attention to detail, good time management skills, a positive attitude and commitment to inclusive prosperity and environmental sustainability. This is an unpaid fellowship although we will work with programs which provide stipends for fellows. The position begins in August/September and runs through December. Please send cover letter, resumé and writing sample by August 12, to MN05fellow@mail.house.gov. Please no phone calls or drop-ins.

MEM-237-16 Louisiana Republican Congressman Ralph Abraham (LA-05) is seeking motivated and hardworking interns to fill positions for the fall. Intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, answering phones, conducting Capitol tours, sorting incoming mail, attending briefings, conducting legislative research and performing other administrative tasks as necessary. Candidates should possess excellent written and oral communication skills, a strong attentiveness to detail, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an eagerness to learn about the political process and congressional affairs. Successful interns will be self-starters, take and listen to direction, and be willing to work both independently as well as part of a team environment. Louisiana ties are a plus but not required. If you are a student we are happy to work with your college or university to arrange for academic credit. Please send a resumé and cover letter in PDF form to LA05.Intern@mail.house.gov with “Internship” in the subject line.

MEM-236-16 Legislative Internship Description:
Nevada Republican seeks a legislative intern for August 2016 and/or Fall 2016. Interns will work in a fast-paced Congressional Office, gaining valuable exposure and knowledge of the legislative process and the United States Congress. Intern responsibilities include greeting constituents, handling constituent phone calls, opening and sorting mail, guiding Capitol building tours, and assisting staff with administrative tasks. Interns will also have the opportunity to conduct legislative research, and assist with correspondence, as well as attend Capitol Hill briefings, congressional hearings, receptions, and press events.

Legislative Internship Qualifications:

Our office is looking for an intern with a positive attitude, strong work ethic, and excellent written and oral communication skills. Successful interns will be self-starters, take and listen to direction, and be willing to work both independently as well as part of a team environment. Applicants should have working knowledge of current events and policy topics, as well as a willingness to do assist with daily office tasks. Nevada ties strongly preferred.

Legislative Internship Requirements:

Interns must be able to commit a minimum of three full days a week (9:00am-6:00pm). Students welcome to apply. Those interested please send cover letter, updated resume, and references to austin.slaughter@mail.house.gov.

MEM-235-16 The Washington, DC, office of a high profile Member of Congress has unpaid internship openings to begin immediately through November. Interns are expected to work long hours and commit between 3-5 days per week. Internship duties include, but are not limited to compiling and daily clips, drafting press releases and op-eds, proofreading and editing, maintaining press lists, updating Member's communications calendar, website and social media platforms. Intern must also assist with answering phones, incoming and outgoing mail, addressing constituent concerns, and assisting the Legislative/District office staff. Strong writing skills are needed. Additionally, graphic design experience and a strong understanding of new media and social media platforms is recommended. Candidates with video editing experience are a plus.

The ideal candidate will be creative, motivated, mature, detail-orientated, and possess the ability to multi-task under high pressure. This is a great opportunity for college students and recent graduates. Women and minorities, especially those with Spanish language fluency, are highly encouraged to apply. New York ties are a plus. To apply for the position, please send your cover letter, resume, writing sample, and graphic/video portfolio (if applicable; hyperlinks ok) addressed to the Legislative Correspondent at CBR.Intern13@mail.house.gov with the subject: Fall Intern.

MEM-233-16 Congressman Raul Ruiz, M.D. (CA-36) seeks highly-motivated, qualified interns with excellent research and communication abilities to join his district offices in Palm Desert and Hemet, California as part of the Fall 2016 Congressional Internship Program. Although congressional interns are unpaid they are considered an integral part of the office and are given an opportunity to expand their knowledge about public policy and the legislative process. Congressional intern responsibilities may include, but are not limited to, conducting research for staff members, assisting staff at community or public events, attending meetings, transcribing documents, and providing general constituent services in the form of answering phone calls. Congressman Ruiz's internship program also features staff-lead workshops designed to develop essential and professional skill that students may apply in any setting. Students interested in applying for a congressional internship in one of the offices of Congressman Raul Ruiz have the opportunity to apply to the Fall 2016 session. Fall 2016 applications will be accepted on a rolling basis with priority given to applications received by Sunday, August 21, 2016. Prospective interns should complete an internship application (available here) attach their resume, and submit to Tony Aguilar at tony.aguilar@mail.house.gov.

MEM-232-16 The office of Representative Kevin Yoder (KS-03) is looking for both full- and part-time interns this fall. Our Washington interns will be exposed to a wide range of activities on Capitol Hill. They will be asked to answer phones, research legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings, and answer constituent letters on various issues before the House. Interns will need to be able to communicate professionally, balance multiple tasks at once, and have a teachable attitude. As a result, interns will learn about the legislative process, the various functions of a Congressional office, and the way things work on Capitol Hill. It is an invaluable opportunity for both educational and professional development.

Interested applicants should email resumes directly to taylor.huhn@mail.house.gov.

MEM-231-16 The Office of Congressman Mark Pocan (D-WI) is seeking full and part-time legislative interns for the Fall 2016 semester in our Washington, D.C. office.

Interns in our office perform legislative and administrative work while gaining valuable career and educational experience. Specific duties include providing constituent services, attending policy briefings and committee hearings, performing legislative research, producing daily press clips, leading Capitol tours, and supporting staff members on various projects of interest.

Qualified candidates are organized and detail-oriented; responsible, willing to learn, able to work cooperatively in a team setting; possess strong oral and written communications skills; and are committed to public service. All internships are unpaid. To apply, please send a resume, cover letter, and a brief writing sample to nick.greene@mail.house.gov with “2016 Pocan Fall Internship” in the subject line. WI ties are a plus!

MEM-230-16 The D.C. office of Congressman Derek Kilmer, hailing from Washington’s 6th district, is looking for personable, diligent full or part-time interns to start for the upcoming late summer/fall term. This is an opportunity to learn about the inner-workings of a congressional office on the Hill in a fast-paced work environment. The internship allows access to briefings and interesting events related to a wide range of important issues. Responsibilities include assisting with constituent correspondence, producing daily press clips, and leading tours of the Capitol. This is a unique opportunity and prime for students or recent grads who are interested in learning about the legislative process or may eventually want to work for the federal government. To apply, please send a resume, contact information for two references, and a cover letter outlining your interest in the position to nwcongressionalinternship@gmail.com, and expect a response within a week. Those with Washington state ties strongly encouraged to apply. We look forward to hearing from you!

MEM-229-16 Congressman Jim Langevin (D-RI) is seeking full and part-time interns for the fall 2016 semester. Interns in our office perform legislative and administrative work while gaining valuable career and educational experience. Specific duties include providing constituent services, attending policy briefings and committee hearings, performing legislative research, and supporting staff members on various projects of interest. Rhode Island ties are preferred but not required.

Qualified candidates are organized and detail-oriented; responsible, willing to learn, able to work cooperatively in a team setting; possess strong oral and written communications skills; and are committed to public service. All internships are unpaid. To apply: send a resume, cover letter, two brief writing samples, and dates of availability to kerry.mckittrick@mail.house.gov.

MEM-228-16 The office of Congressman Bill Johnson (R-OH) is currently seeking highly motivated and organized applicants for a full or part-time unpaid internship for the 2016 fall internship program. The internship is scheduled to run from August 22 to December 16. Candidates should possess interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, and attention to detail. Responsibilities will mostly include, but are not limited to: answering phones, leading tours of the U.S. Capitol, attending and summarizing hearings and/or briefings for legislative staff, and performing various administrative tasks. Ohio ties are preferred, but are not required. The months of the internship may vary depending on the availability or school schedule of the applicant. If interested, please send a resume and cover letter to intern.oh06@gmail.com with "2016 Fall Internship" in the subject line. No phone calls or walk-ins will be accepted.

MEM-227-16 New York Republican seeks qualified applicants for an unpaid full-time internship in Washington, DC office. Duties include, but are not limited to, administrative tasks, answering phones, providing Capitol tours, logging and drafting constituent correspondence, and conducting research for legislative staff. The ideal candidate must be a self-starter, exhibit strong oral and written communication skills, and possess proficient research abilities. New York ties a plus but not required. Interested candidates should send a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample to nygopjoblisting@mail.house.gov.

MEM-226-16 The Office of Congresswoman Brenda L. Lawrence (MI-14) seeks a motivated, detail-oriented, and energetic professional with excellent oral and written communication skills for an intern position in the Washington, DC office. Individuals should demonstrate strong interpersonal skills and the ability to manage multiple tasks, possess strong computing skills, and demonstrate a solid work ethic.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

Answering and screening telephone calls, organizing and managing the front office, greeting constituents and visitors, assisting legislative staff with research, attending congressional briefings and participating in hearing preparation; assisting with the planning, preparation and execution of Member events and appearances, answering constituent correspondence, and other duties as necessary.

Please submit cover letter and resume to: alex.huang@mail.house.gov