INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of September 30, 2019

MEM-468-19 The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Science, Space and Technology seeks a full-time, paid Communications Intern for the fall/winter. Responsibilities include updating and maintaining the website, creating social media content and graphics, drafting press releases and op-eds, and compiling and tracking media coverage.

Additionally, this intern is critical to the daily operation of the office including tasks such as answering phones, greeting visitors, and filing official documents. The ideal candidate will be detail-oriented, creative, reliable, and have excellent writing and communications skills. Familiarity with social media and website development is strongly desired. An interest in science policy is a plus.

Please send resume, cover letter, writing sample, and social media graphic sample to sstdeminterns@mail.house.gov with "Communications Intern" in the subject. Please include your approximate dates of availability. No calls or drop-ins please.

MEM-465-19 The House Foreign Affairs Committee Majority Staff is currently looking for one full-time intern for the Fall 2019 semester. Interns will be responsible for providing staff members with policy and administrative support. Duties may include answering phones, compiling press clips, attending staff briefings, performing legislative and policy research, drafting memoranda and other written materials, and a variety of other tasks.

Candidates should be team-oriented, resourceful, upbeat people who have skills beyond research and require little supervision. This internship is open to undergraduates (rising seniors and above), recent graduates, and Master's and law students. Minorities, women, and LGBTQ persons are strongly encouraged to apply. Please note that this internship is unpaid.

If you would like to be considered for an internship please submit a one-page resume and cover letter to hcfa.democrat@mail.house.gov and include "Fall 2019 Internship Application" in the subject line of the email.

MEM-463-19 Congressman Mark Walker of North Carolina (NC-06) is seeking full-time interns for the Fall 2019 session in our Washington, D.C. office. The fall session will end on December 20th, but flexibility can be offered. Preferred candidates are current college students or recent graduates who pay close attention to detail, work well under deadlines, have a strong work ethic, and are interested in the legislative process. Strong communication skills are a must.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, answering phones, corresponding with constituents, leading U.S. Capitol tours, attending Congressional hearings and briefings, assisting the legislative staff, and completing legislative projects in a timely manner. Ties to North Carolina are preferred but not required.

To apply, please e-mail resume and cover letter to Kyle.McKay@mail.house.gov with "Fall Intern" in the subject line.

MEM-461-19 The House Veterans' Affairs Committee (Minority) is currently accepting applications for full-time internships for the fall 2019 session. Working closely with Committee staff, interns will have the opportunity to gain first-hand knowledge of the legislative process and the inner-workings of a congressional committee. Interns will be working in a fast-paced front office, answering phones, and greeting visitors.

Responsibilities also include assisting staff with hearings/markups, day to day administrative operations, legislative research projects, and various other tasks as assigned. Ideal candidates must have a genuine interest in issues affecting veterans and possess an energetic, team player attitude. Candidates with previous Hill experience are preferred. Note that Committee internships are unpaid positions.

Please send a cover letter, resume, and short writing sample to: var.internship@mail.house.gov. No phone calls or walk-ins please.
