INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of October 15, 2019

MEM-514-19 The Democratic Majority of the Committee on Rules is seeking a full-time press intern for the upcoming semester (January-May). Opportunities will include compiling daily press clips, working collaboratively to generate creative and engaging content for digital platforms, and assisting communications staff with the creation of additional materials as needed.

Ideal candidate is a politically savvy, detail-oriented, and creative self-starter who is familiar with graphic and/or video design, with an interest in learning about House procedure. Applicants must have a positive attitude and be willing to perform a variety of tasks.

A stipend will be available for qualified candidates. No calls or drop-ins please. Massachusetts ties are a plus. The office is an equal opportunity employer and diverse candidates, those with untraditional backgrounds, women, and LGBTQ persons are strongly encouraged to apply.

Applicants should send both a resume and brief cover letter with the subject line: Press Intern Spring 2020 – Last Name, First Name explaining why you want to join, in particular, the Democratic staff of the House Rules Committee to RulesInternDem.Application@mail.house.gov. Please save requested documents in a single file (pdf preferred) and name the file “Last name, First name.” The deadline has been extended to October 28, 2019.

MEM-513-19 The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Rules is seeking full-time, energetic interns for the upcoming semester (January – May). Our interns work closely with Committee staff to prepare materials for Committee meetings, process incoming amendments to bills, conduct research projects, answer phones, learn about the Rules of the House and the special-order process, and complete a variety of other administrative tasks.

Ideal candidates have strong writing skills, a good work ethic, an interest in learning about House floor procedures, and are detail-oriented. Applicants must have a positive attitude and be willing to perform a variety of tasks.

A stipend will be available for qualified candidates. No calls or drop-ins please. Massachusetts ties are a plus. The office is an equal opportunity employer and strongly encourages candidates from diverse backgrounds or with untraditional experience to apply.

Interested applicants should email a cover letter and resume with the subject line: Legislative Intern Spring 2020 – Last Name, First Name explaining why you want to join the Democratic staff of the House Rules Committee to RulesInternDem.Application@mail.house.gov. Please save requested documents in a single file (pdf preferred) and name the file “Last name, First name.” The deadline has been extended to October 28, 2019.

MEM-511-19 The Office of Congressman Pete Stauber is seeking part-time or full-time interns for the Spring of 2019. Responsibilities will include answering phones, managing the front office, giving Capitol tours, greeting constituents, assisting legislative staff with research, assisting with constituent letters, and other tasks as assigned.

Preferred candidates are current college students or recent graduates who have excellent customer service skills, have a strong work ethic, and pay close attention to detail. Qualified candidates will also have strong oral and written communication skills and be able to work well on a team. Minnesota ties are strongly preferred.

Internships include a monthly stipend and the office will work with current students to receive college credits. Interested applications should send their resume, brief cover letter, and references to Eric.Gebhart@mail.house.gov. Please indicate expected start and end dates as well as hours available to work in your cover letter.

MEM-510-19 The Office of Congresswoman Susie Lee is seeking Fall 2019 interns for our Washington, D.C. office. Responsibilities will include answering phones, managing the front office, giving Capitol tours, greeting constituents, assisting legislative staff with research, and other tasks as assigned.

Preferred candidates are current college students or recent graduates who work well under deadlines, pay close attention to detail, have a strong work ethic, have excellent customer service skills, and work well on a team. Nevada ties are preferred, but not required. Women, LGBTQ+, and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, disability, or age.

Interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to NV03Resumes@gmail.com with "Fall Intern" in the subject line. No phone calls or walk-ins please.

MEM-509-19 The Republican Staff of the Committee on Oversight and Reform, the chief investigative body of the House of Representatives, is seeking full- and part-time interns for the remainder of the fall semester. Interns will have the opportunity to work with the administrative, policy, and press teams, conducting research, assisting during hearings and markups, and helping with other administrative tasks as necessary.

This position is available immediately and would go through December, with the potential for extending into the spring semester. Specific dates for this internship will be determined on a case-by-case basis, and preference will be afforded to those who are available at least 15 hours a week.

Applicants must be strong writers, organized, and detail-oriented, as they will balance multiple, often disparate, projects corresponding with the broad jurisdiction of the Committee. The strongest candidates will also exhibit discretion in working on confidential matters and be enthusiastic and knowledgeable about the Committee's work. Previous experience on Capitol Hill is desired, but not required. The position is unpaid, but we are happy to work with an applicant so they can receive class credit.

Interested individuals should submit a cover letter and resume to oversight.committee@mail.house.gov. Please place "INTERN" in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

MEM-508-19 The Republican Staff of the Committee on Oversight and Reform, the chief investigative body of the House of Representatives, is seeking full- and part-time law clerks for the remainder of the fall semester. Law clerks will balance multiple, often disparate, projects corresponding with the broad jurisdiction of the Committee.

This position is available immediately and would go through December, with the potential for extending into the spring semester. Specific dates for this internship will be determined on a case-by-case basis, and preference will be afforded to those who are available at least 15 hours a week.

Applicants must be current law school students or recent graduates of law school who are organized and detail-oriented. Strong writing and blue booking skills are also necessary. The strongest candidates will also exhibit discretion in working on confidential matters and be enthusiastic and knowledgeable about the Committee's work. This position is unpaid, but we are happy to work with an applicant so they can receive class credit.

Interested individuals should submit a cover letter and resume to oversight.committee@mail.house.gov. Please place "LAW CLERK" in the subject line. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

MEM-507-19 The Democratic Staff of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs seeks full or part-time legislative and press interns for spring 2020. Responsibilities include but are not limited to conducting legislative research, answering phones, attending briefings and hearings for staff, compiling press clips, drafting content, and other tasks depending on the needs of the Committee and the intern's interests. Qualified candidates will have strong oral and written communications skills as well as a desire to help veterans and learn about the House and legislative process.

Apply by submitting an application at <https://veterans.house.gov/contact/internship> and sending a resume and cover letter to veterans.internships@mail.house.gov. Applications are considered on a rolling basis. Student veterans preferred, but not required.

This internship is unpaid, students receiving outside funding or school sponsorship are preferred.

MEM-505-19 The Office of Congressman Greg Murphy (NC-03) is currently seeking paid interns with our DC office for the Spring 2020 session. The internship would begin in January and last until early May. Our specific dates are tentative on the release of the official House schedule.

This is a great opportunity to gain hands-on experience and knowledge over the day-to-day happenings within Congress. The internship is an ideal fit for any student that is interested in politics, law or government – however, any interested student is encouraged to apply! Interns will assist the legislative staff by conducting policy research, answering phones, leading tours, and helping with administrative tasks.

Qualified candidates should:

- Be a current undergraduate or graduate student, or have recently graduated
- Demonstrate an interest in politics, policy and/or public service
- Have strong communications and writing skills.
- Be hard-working, dependable, detail-oriented and professional.

The deadline to apply for the Spring Session is Friday, November 15th. Interested candidates should address their application materials to Collin Sabine at Interns.NC03@gmail.com. Applications should include a cover letter, resume, and what the individual's internship schedule may look like.
