Week of January 3, 2018

MEM-005-18 California Democratic Member is seeking a qualified applicant for a temporary paid internship in his Capitol Office. Responsibilities include corresponding with constituents, leading tours of the Capitol, and significant administrative duties. Candidates should be detail oriented, possess strong oral and written communication skills, and have an ability to multitask and be flexible in a fast-paced environment. Multilingual applicants, particularly those speaking Spanish, are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and 2-3 page writing sample to CAJobs@mail.house.gov no later than January 10, 2018.
No phone calls or drop-ins please.

MEM-004-18 Congressman Ben Ray Luján (NM-03) has immediate openings for unpaid full-time and part-time interns for his Washington, D.C. office. Candidates should be motivated, flexible, and detail-oriented individuals with immediate availability, and a preference for those who can stay two-three months. New Mexico ties are a plus, but are not required.

Intern responsibilities include answering constituent phone calls, leading tours of the Capitol, sorting mail and faxes, writing letters, and assisting experienced staff with projects in diverse issue areas. Candidates should be outgoing and possess strong oral and written communication skills, an ability to multitask in a fast-paced environment, and a good sense of humor. Candidates with New Mexico ties are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter – including desired start date, and a 1-2 page writing sample to Lujan.Tours@mail.house.gov.

MEM-002-18 Representative Debbie Dingell (D-MI) is seeking full or part-time congressional interns for her Washington, D.C. office for Winter 2018 (mid-January to May). This internship position will provide individuals the opportunity to work in a fast-paced Congressional office while receiving hands-on political experience. Duties include answering phones, leading U.S. Capitol tours and assisting staff members with research and special projects. There will also be frequent opportunities to attend legislative hearings of personal interest. The ideal candidate will be motivated, detail-oriented and possess strong communication and writing skills. Michigan ties are preferred. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter with the subject line “Winter Internship” to timothy.huebner@mail.house.gov.

MEM-513-17 Congresswoman Eleanor Holmes Norton’s Capitol Hill office is seeking strong undergraduate, graduate, and recent graduate candidates for the spring internship program.

Description

Responsibilities will include but are not limited to answering phones, conducting legislative research, attending briefings/hearings, drafting memos, performing administrative tasks, assisting with constituent relations, and managing the front office. The internship gives students the opportunity to interact directly with the inner workings of Capitol Hill and the legislative process.

Requirements

Applicants should be professional, hardworking, and enthusiastic with strong writing and communication skills. Reliable, responsible, and personable individuals are more likely to thrive in this position.

Qualified applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and a two-page writing sample to Priscilla.Kim@mail.house.gov with the subject line “Norton Internship.” District ties are required. Both full and part time positions require a minimum three-month commitment, are unpaid, and will be considered on a rolling basis.

No phone calls or drop ins, please.
