INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of November 23, 2020

MEM-295-20 Congressman Adam Kinzinger (R-IL) is seeking interns for the Spring 2021 session in his Washington, D.C. office. The Spring session will take place from January to May. Interns will have the opportunity to observe the inner workings of a Congressional office while gaining firsthand knowledge of the legislative process.

Responsibilities include: leading Capitol tours, answering phones, processing constituent mail, assisting staff with legislative projects, and performing other general office duties.

Ideal candidates should have a strong work ethic, be energetic and engaging, and possess a positive attitude. The internship schedule is flexible to accommodate classes. Candidates with Illinois ties are strongly encouraged to apply. Interested candidates should e-mail their resume and cover letter to internsIL16@gmail.com by Dec. 9, 2020. Please specify what your internship schedule may look like and preferred start date.

Please note: The internship will be conducted in a hybrid setting with both in-person and virtual work days. Social distancing in accordance with DC public health guidelines will be strongly encouraged and adhered to.

MEM-291-20 The Office of Congresswoman Gwen Moore (WI-04) is seeking a virtual press intern to assist with a fast-paced communications operation for Spring 2021.

This is a paid position. Qualified candidates will have strong writing, editing, event planning, social media, graphic design, and photography skills, and be able to work on tight deadlines. Intern responsibilities include:

- * Social media content development
- * Compiling press clips
- * Creating newsletters
- * Clipping videos
- * Creating graphics
- * Drafting press releases

Interested applicants should email a cover letter, resume, short writing sample, and dates of availability to GwenMoorePress.Moore@mail.house.gov with “Spring 2021 Press Internship” in the subject line.

We also recommend that applicants submit 1-3 sample graphics. Women, LGBTQ+, and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, disability, or age.

MEM-289-20 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform, Subcommittee on Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, is seeking an energetic and self-motivated student for a full-time internship for Spring 2021.

The position offers the opportunity to gain substantive experience on an exciting and fast-paced Subcommittee while participating directly in the oversight process and learning about the day-to-day operations of the House of Representatives.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, assisting staff in preparing for congressional hearings, conducting legal and factual research, drafting memoranda, and attending various briefings and meetings with Executive Branch and private sector officials. Interns play a key role in the office and will work closely with Committee counsel and staff.

Background: The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the primary investigative committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, with jurisdiction to investigate any matter at any time. The Subcommittee on Civil Rights and Civil Liberties has jurisdiction over issues related to civil rights, civil liberties and the equal protection of laws, including voting rights; freedom of religion, speech, press, and assembly; equal employment; nondisclosure agreements; criminal justice reform policies; and the Census Bureau.

Qualifications: Applicants should have an interest in public service and a desire to learn. They also must have superior attention to detail, work well under pressure, be self-motivated, and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Law students preferred. Applicants should be available to work full time.

Applications: Interested applicants should apply to this position by emailing a cover letter and resume to Candyce.Phoenix@mail.house.gov with “Spring 2021 Internship Application” in the subject line. No phone calls or drop-ins, please.
