INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of January 14, 2019

MEM-033-19 The Committee on House Administration Democratic staff is currently seeking full-time and part-time interns for the 2019 Spring semester. This internship will begin immediately, lasting through May of 2019. Interns will have various responsibilities in assisting staff with administrative duties, franking, and legislative research. Duties include, but are not limited to, answering phones, sorting franking requests, compiling hearing materials, assisting with front office duties, and assisting the committee's Elections Counsels. Candidates must exhibit strong writing, communication, research, and organizational skills. Please send a resume, and brief writing sample in PDF format to Sydney.burns@mail.house.gov with "Congressional Internship" in the subject line.

MEM-032-19 Legislative Fellow: Women's Issues. Congresswoman Brenda L. Lawrence (MI-14) seeks a full-time Legislative Fellow for Women's Issues in her Washington, DC office. Duties include: conducting policy research and tracking legislation, preparing memos for staff and the Member, liaising with stakeholders, and organizing events for the Democratic Women's Working Group and the Bipartisan Women's Caucus. The ideal candidate will possess policy experience, an understanding of the legislative process, strong communication skills, and the ability to work well in a fast-paced environment. Applicants may receive academic credit and are encouraged to seek any necessary fellowship support from their academic institution or organization; Master's and PhD students are encouraged to apply.

The office is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, gender identity, or sexual orientation. Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Please submit a resume, cover letter, and two writing samples to MI14district@gmail.com. No phone calls or drop-ins, please.

- MEM-031-19 The Republican staff of the House Budget Committee is currently accepting applications for spring 2019 Interns. The dates of the internship will be March 1, 2019 through May 31, 2019. We are seeking individuals who are dependable, politically conservative, professional, and who have a strong work ethic and positive attitude. As an intern with the Committee, you will provide vital support by assisting staff in assignments that include, but not limited to: compiling daily budget news clips, sorting and processing mail, answering phone calls, assembling reference material, administrative support, and special policy based projects. Full and part-time positions are available. College students pursuing a Political Science and/or Economics degree, or those interested in government are encouraged to apply. Course credit may be available through your school. Applicants should email their resume, cover letter, 2 references (1 professional and 1 academic), one page writing sample, and completed application to budget.interns@mail.house.gov. These materials should be in PDF format. Please visit republicans-budget.house.gov for the application and more information.
- MEM-030-19 Congressman Ron Estes (KS-04) is currently seeking applicants for part-time and full-time internships for the Spring of 2019 in Washington, D.C. MEM-408-18 U.S. Rep. Bill Pascrell, Jr. (D-NJ), member of the Ways and Means Committee, seeks spring semester interns for his Washington, DC office. This internship term runs from January through May. Duties include sorting and processing mail, greeting visitors, answering phone calls, attending briefings and hearings, researching legislative issues, leading tours of the Capitol, assisting our press team, and drafting constituent correspondence. Ties to New Jersey are strongly preferred, but not necessary.

Congressman Pascrell has served in Congress for 20 years and serves on the Ways and Means Committee and as the Ranking Member on the Ways and Means Subcommittee on Trade. He holds a leadership position on the Democratic Steering and Policy Committee. This internship is an opportunity to work in a veteran office and learn the ins and outs of Congress. We are very open to interns working in the areas that interest them most and taking on increasing responsibility as the summer progresses. Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter to Christopher Hadad Christopher.Hadad@mail.house.gov. All applications are due by November 30th, 2018.

MEM-407-18 Congressman Vern Buchanan is looking for looking for full time, unpaid interns for his Washington DC office. Candidates should be motivated, flexible and detailed oriented with immediate availability. Florida ties are a plus but not required.

Intern responsibilities include answering constituent phones, leading Capitol tours, upkeeping mail databases, writing memo's, and assigned duties from full time staff. Candidates should be outgoing and possess strong oral and written communication skills.

Please email your resume, available start date, and weekly availability to housegopinternshipFL@outlook.com.

MEM-406-18 The office of Congressman Jim Costa (D-CA) is currently seeking an unpaid Intern for the Winter/Spring Semester. This is an excellent opportunity for college students or recent graduates who want Hill experience. Interns will be expected to assist legislative staff, while also performing administrative tasks such as answering phones, sorting mail, etc. Individuals who are motivated, dependable, and have good communication skills are encouraged to apply. Potential schedules may be determined upon interview, but a minimum commitment of 32 hours per week is requested. Qualified candidates must be friendly, organized, and responsible, possess the ability to multi-task and a good sense of humor is always a plus. California ties are preferred but not required. Please send your resume, cover letter, a writing sample (no more than 3 pages), and your dates of availability to californiamoderate@gmail.com.

MEM-359-18 The Committee on Education and the Workforce, Democratic Staff is currently seeking undergraduate and graduate interns and fellows for the Spring of 2019. Specifically, we are seeking general undergraduate interns, graduate and legal interns and fellows for the education policy team and graduate and legal interns and fellows for the labor policy team. Interns perform a variety of tasks that support the staff in our legislative and media work. Legislative tasks may include, but are not limited to: legislative research and fact checking; technical writing including legislation, memos, and speeches; assisting staff in hearing and markup preparation and execution; and attending other hearings, markups, briefings and meetings for the purpose of informing staff and Members as they work to craft legislation and policy proposals. Media tasks may include helping to organize and staff Committee press conferences and assisting with the production of daily news clips. Applicants should be able to start in January and commit through April/May. Interested applicants should email their cover letter, resume and internship applicant information form to jobs_ewdems@mail.house.gov. If you are applying for a graduate internship or fellowship, please include two short, relevant writing samples in your application materials. Please visit our website at <http://democrats.edworkforce.house.gov/about/internships> for more information. Applicants should aim to submit their materials by November 2, 2018.

MEM-316-18 Congressman John Garamendi (CA-03) is seeking a highly motivated intern to join his Washington, DC office in August. Candidates should be collegial, professional, quick learners, and phenomenal team players. Strong oral and written communication skills and close attention to detail are imperative. Duties include assisting staff with legislative, administrative, and press related projects, writing memos and talking points, attending hearings and meetings, answering constituent phone calls, leading tours of the US Capitol, assisting with scheduling, sorting and distributing mail, and managing tour and flag requests. Full-time candidates with California ties and previous internship/work experience are preferred. This is an unpaid internship. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to Garamendi.Internships@mail.house.gov.
