MEM-462-19 The Office of the Law Revision Counsel—a small, nonpartisan office within the U.S. House of Representatives—seeks an attorney to assist in the editing and publishing of the United States Code, the codification of general and permanent Federal statutory law.

The editorial work needed to maintain the U.S. Code involves a number of tasks, including:

- reading new laws to determine which provisions should appear in the Code and where,
- updating the Code to reflect new law and amendments to existing law,
- writing concise editorial notes to explain amendments, effective dates, references within the text to other laws, and a variety of other legislative concepts,
- preparing statutory citations and tables, and
- identifying errors in grammar and spelling—
- all while conforming to very strict style guidelines.

In addition to the basic tasks required to integrate new laws into the Code, other duties may be required, such as reviewing drafts of bills to enact titles as positive law, doing extensive research and editorial work to improve the organization of existing provisions in the Code, and assisting in the continuing modernization of the Office, including support of online and machine readable versions of the Code.

Qualifications

- J.D. degree and attorney license in any U.S. jurisdiction or intention to obtain license within one year.

- At least one year of professional experience in editing or publishing, preferably in the legal field.
- Meticulous attention to detail and dedication to accuracy.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Absolute proficiency in grammar, spelling, and usage.
- Ability to analyze and summarize complex legal issues.
- Ability to identify issues affecting Federal statutes and explain them clearly and concisely within firmly established parameters.

Other conditions to note:

Familiarity with Federal or State statutory law is highly desirable.

This position is better suited to someone able to engage in extended periods of solitary work, often involving tedious and repetitive tasks.

The ability to adhere to, and function comfortably within, established styles and practices is essential.

Please be aware that this is a long-term career position with the Office, not a stepping stone to another position within Congress or the Federal Government.

Applicant Instructions

Qualified candidates should submit a resume and cover letter with salary requirements to:

uscodeapplicant@mail.house.gov

Applicants will be evaluated based on the ability to meet the qualifications stated above. Significant weight will be given to the applicant's cover letter. If chosen for an interview, an applicant will be requested to submit a writing sample.
