

House Vacancy Announcement and Placement Service (HVAPS)

B-235 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515
202-226-5836

Vacancy Bulletins are available for pick-up in Longworth HOB - B-227 (CAO First Call Customer Service Center) or in the CAO Human Resources Office - Ford HOB 102
To Subscribe or Unsubscribe to the Vacancy Listserv visit:

<http://www.house.gov/content/jobs/>

Job Line: 202-226-4504

INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING
Week of December 26, 2016

- MEM-422-16 Congresswoman Lois Frankel's (FL-21) D.C. office seeks interns for the Spring semester. The ideal candidate possesses a high degree of professionalism and maturity, is committed and diligent, and is a team player with a positive attitude. This position demands the ability to multi-task, high efficiency and strong organizational skills as well as an ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others. Duties include: answering telephone calls, responding to general constituent inquiries and requests for tours, assisting with constituent correspondence, and providing administrative assistance to the DC staff. Undergraduate students or recent college graduates preferred, South Florida ties a plus. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter to: olivia.hodge@mail.house.gov.
- MEM-417-16 Representative Debbie Dingell (D-MI) is seeking a full-time congressional intern for her Washington, D.C. office for Winter/Spring (January – May/June). This internship position will provide individuals the opportunity to work in a fast-paced Congressional office while receiving hands-on political experience. Duties include answering phones, leading U.S. Capitol tours and assisting staff members with research and special projects. There will also be frequent opportunities to attend legislative hearings of personal interest. The ideal candidate will be motivated; detail orientated and possesses strong communication and writing skills. This is a great opportunity for recent graduates seeking Hill experience. Michigan ties are preferred. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to kevin.dollhopf@mail.house.gov

MEM-416-16 The Washington office of Rep. Mark Sanford (SC-01) seeks internship candidates for the upcoming spring semester that would be able to start in January 2017.

Applicants should possess strong writing skills, be well organized, generally knowledgeable of legislative and related issues, able to complete tasks as directed, and have an eye for detail. Main duties will include answering telephones, logging constituent calls, giving tours of the Capitol to visitors, opening and sorting mail, and assisting with other administrative tasks. However, interns will have MANY opportunities to take on additional assignments within the office, at the discretion of staff.

Anyone interested should email a resume to SC01InternApplicants@mail.house.gov and list their potential start date in the body of the email. South Carolina ties are preferred, but not required.

MEM-415-16 Congressman Luis V. Gutiérrez (IL-04) is seeking interns available for an immediate start for the Winter / Spring 2017 semester. Interns will work in a fast-paced Congressional Office, gaining valuable exposure and knowledge of the legislative process and the United States Congress. Interns will have the opportunity to conduct legislative research, assist with correspondence, as well as attend some Capitol Hill briefings, congressional hearings, and press events. Intern responsibilities will also include greeting constituents, handling constituent phone calls, opening and sorting mail, giving Capitol Tours, and assisting staff with administrative tasks. This internship is unpaid.

Qualifications:

Interns must have a good attitude, strong work ethic, and excellent written and oral communication skills. Successful interns will be able to find information with little assistance, be able to work both independently as well as part of a team, and have strong attention to detail. Illinois ties a plus.

Requirements:

Interns must be able to commit to at least three full days per week (9:00AM - 5:30PM). Please submit resume and cover letter to Julissa.Santoy@mail.house.gov ASAP.

MEM-411-16 The Office of Rep. Paul Tonko (NY-20) is seeking unpaid interns for the Spring Semester. Intern duties will include assisting with administrative and legislative tasks, answering phones, processing mail, providing capitol tours, and attending briefings. Preference will be given to residents of the 20th district and Upstate

New Yorkers. Interested applicants should email a cover letter, resume, and dates of availability to noor.teebi@mail.house.gov with “Spring Internship” in the subject field.

- MEM-410-16 The office of Congressman Raul Ruiz (CA-36) is currently seeking full and part-time unpaid scheduling interns for Fall 2016 to work in the Congressman’s Washington, DC office. Interns will gain valuable Capitol Hill experience and further their understanding of the legislative process. Daily responsibilities will include, but are not limited to: data entry, maintaining and organizing databases of meeting/event requests, assisting with Rep. Ruiz’s daily schedule, staffing the front office, greeting visitors, answering phones, and other administrative duties. Qualified candidates will be highly organized, prompt, responsible, and ready to work in a fast paced environment. Strong oral and communication skills are a must. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. California ties and the ability to speak Spanish are a plus. Interested applicants should send their resume and cover letter to lauren.heasley@mail.house.gov. No phone calls or drop-ins, please.
- MEM-409-16 The office of Congressman Don Beyer (VA-08) seeks eager, full-time internship candidates who possess strong writing, research, and communication skills for an unpaid internship. The ideal candidate is a team player, enjoys working in a fast-paced environment, and is able to multi-task. Interested candidates should submit their resume and cover letter to Pablo.Sierra@mail.house.gov. Ties to Virginia's 8th Congressional District is a plus, but not required. No phone calls or drop-ins, please.
- MEM-408-16 California Democratic Member is seeking a qualified applicant for a temporary paid internship in his Capitol Office. Responsibilities include corresponding with constituents, leading tours of the Capitol, and significant administrative duties. Candidates should be detail oriented, possess strong oral and written communication skills, and have an ability to multitask and be flexible in a fast-paced environment. Multilingual applicants, particularly those speaking Spanish, are encouraged to apply. Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and 2-3 page writing sample to CAJobs@mail.house.gov. No phone calls or drop-ins please.
- MEM-407-16 The Office of Congresswoman Ann McLane Kuster (NH-02) is seeking qualified candidates to intern full time and part time in our Washington, D.C. office. Interns will have a chance to experience first-hand the operations of a U.S. Congressional office, learn about the legislative process, and gain Capitol Hill experience. Responsibilities include administrative tasks such as answering phones, welcoming guests, and leading constituent tours. In addition, interns will be required to conduct legislative research, draft constituent correspondence and vote recommendations, attend briefings and hearings and other projects as needed.

Candidates should have excellent writing and communication skills, strong organizational abilities, a good work ethic, an ability to work independently, and a drive to take initiative. Candidates with ties to the Northeast—especially New Hampshire—are preferred, but not required.

If candidates have any questions or wish to apply, please send a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample to kate.fraiman@mail.house.gov. Please include “Last Name, First Name - Internship Application” in the subject line and include your available start and end dates and weekly schedule in the email.

MEM-405-16

The office of Representative Castro (TX-20) is seeking an experienced and motivated Press Intern for spring 2017 in the Washington D.C. office. Undergraduate students, minorities, and women are strongly encouraged to apply. This is a paid internship and an excellent opportunity for students seeking academic credit. Full-time undergraduate student applicants are preferred, but part-time applicants will also be considered. Hours are flexible to accommodate the intern’s schedule.

Responsibilities Include:

- Researching to support office communications efforts
- Drafting social media postings, newsletters and other written content
- Pulling press clips
- Attending briefings, hearings, receptions, and press events
- Assisting with general office duties
- Answering phones and logging constituent mail
- Giving Capitol tours

Requirements:

Ideal candidates must possess a passion for writing, keen attention to detail, creativity, a strong understanding of social media and digital platforms, and an eagerness to learn about the political process and congressional affairs. They should be able to work independently as well as part of a team environment. Graphic design skills, relevant coursework, and/or experience in media and public relations are pluses.

Applicants should have a working knowledge of current events and policy topics, as well as a willingness to perform a variety of tasks and administrative functions.

The application can be found at <http://castro.house.gov/services/internships>.

Interested candidates should submit their completed application, cover letter, a foreign affairs writing sample, and resume to tx20resume@gmail.com. Subject line should read “Spring 2017 Internship Application”. Texas ties preferred, but not required.

MEM-404-16

The office of Representative Castro (TX-20) is looking for energetic and motivated interns for spring 2017 in the Washington D.C. office. Undergraduate students, minorities, and women are strongly encouraged to apply. This is a paid internship and an excellent opportunity for students seeking academic credit.

Full-time undergraduate student applicants are preferred, but part-time applicants will also be considered. Hours are flexible to accommodate the intern's schedule. Responsibilities Include:

- Conducting legislative research
- Attending briefings, hearings, receptions, and press events
- Assisting with general office duties
- Answering phones and logging constituent mail
- Giving Capitol tours
- Performing various tasks based on ability and interest

Requirements:

Ideal candidates must possess excellent written and oral communication skills, keen attention to detail, a positive attitude, and an eagerness to learn about the political process and congressional affairs. They should also be able to work independently as well as part of a team environment. Fluency in Spanish is a plus. Applicants should have a working knowledge of current events and policy topics, as well as a willingness to perform a variety of tasks and administrative functions. The application can be found at <http://castro.house.gov/services/internships>. Interested candidates should submit their completed application, cover letter, and resume to tx20resume@gmail.com. Subject line should read "Spring 2017 Internship Application". Texas ties preferred, but not required.

MEM-403-16 The Office of Congressman Denny Heck (WA-10) is currently seeking full – or part – time interns for the Spring 2017 semester in Washington DC. Intern responsibilities include answering phone calls, greeting visitors, leading tours of the Capitol, drafting letters to constituents, and helping conduct research for various administrative projects. Ideal candidates will have a meticulous attention to detail, strong writing skills, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an enthusiasm for the political process and congressional operations. Internships are unpaid, but can serve as a first-step towards a career on Capitol Hill. Ties to the Pacific Northwest preferred but not required. Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, two references, and work availability with the subject line "Spring 2017 Internship" to Nick Vargish at nick.vargish@mail.house.gov.

MEM-401-16 Midwest Democrat is seeking interns available for an immediate start for the spring 2017 semester. Interns will work in a fast-paced Congressional Office, gaining valuable exposure and knowledge of the legislative process and the United States Congress. Interns will have the opportunity to conduct legislative research, assist with correspondence, as well as attend some Capitol Hill briefings, congressional hearings, and press events. Intern responsibilities will also include greeting constituents, handling constituent phone calls, opening and sorting mail, giving Capitol Tours, and assisting staff with administrative tasks. This internship is unpaid.

Qualifications:

Interns must have a good attitude, strong work ethic, and excellent written and oral communication skills. Successful interns will be able to find information with little assistance, be able to work both independently as well as part of a team, and have strong attention to detail. Applicants should have working knowledge of current events and policy topics, as well as an interest in American Government, fiscal issues, education and reproductive rights. Wisconsin ties a plus.

Requirements:

Interns must be able to commit to at least two full days per week (9:00 am-6:00 pm). Please submit resume and 2 one page writing samples to Nairobi.cratic@mail.house.gov ASAP.

- MEM-399-16 The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Science, Space and Technology is seeking interns for the spring semester. Interns are asked to work with staff to help prepare for committee hearings and markups, and will work on substantive research and oversight projects in addition to press matters. Furthermore, interns will be critical to the daily operation of the office including tasks such as answering phones, greeting visitors, and filing official documents.

Interested applicants should visit the Committee's website at <http://democrats.science.house.gov/internships>. Please fill out the provided application and attach a resume. No calls or drop-ins please.

- MEM-398-16 Arizona Republican is seeking interns for his Washington D.C. office for the Spring Semester. Interns will be exposed to a wide array of the daily activities of a Congressional office – engaging with constituents, assisting members of the staff with writing and other projects as needed and giving tours of the Capitol Building. Additional duties of interns include answering telephones, greeting visitors and sorting mail.

While this position is unpaid, the benefits of interning on Capitol Hill can't be overstated. This position will help you understand the inner workings of Capitol Hill in a way that's impossible to get otherwise.

Applicants should have excellent time management and writing abilities, have strong organizational skills with a keen eye for details, and should be motivated self-starters who can produce results with minimal supervision. Arizona ties and previous Hill experience a plus but not required.

Please send a cover letter, one-page resume, and a two- to three-page writing sample to GOPinternshipAZ@gmail.com with "Internship Application" in the subject line. No phone calls please.

- MEM-397-16 The Democratic staff of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is seeking unpaid, press interns for the 2017 Spring and Fall semesters. Primary responsibilities include answering the press line, compiling daily news clips, drafting social media content, conducting research, and assisting with administrative tasks as needed. Press interns will be an integral part of our robust press team and will have the opportunity to provide input on key strategic messaging sessions. A background in journalism, public relations or general communications is preferred. Minorities and women are also encouraged to apply. All interested candidates should send a resume and two references to OversightPress@mail.house.gov.

To ensure that we receive the widest range of applicants until filled, we ask that you please keep this job vacancy open until we advise that it's been filled.

MEM-396-16 The Washington, DC office of Congressman Ruben Gallego (D-AZ) is seeking enthusiastic and motivated interns for Spring 2017.

The ideal candidates will interact well with constituents, be able to multitask, and have a strong interest in public service. Excellent research and writing skills are crucial. Arizona ties are a plus, but not required.

Interns will have the opportunity to gain experience working on Capitol Hill and learn firsthand about the workings of a Congressional office. Responsibilities include answering the phone, greeting visitors to the office, guiding tours of the Capitol, assisting with constituent correspondence, and attending briefings and hearings. Internships are unpaid, but the office will fill out any necessary forms for students to receive academic credit.

Interested applicants should submit an application including a cover letter, resume, and a 2-5 page writing sample at <https://rubengallego.house.gov/services/internships>. Cover letters should include days and times the applicants will be available during the internship period; writing samples may be excerpts of larger works.

Spring interns will begin in January and end in May. Please specify if you have any conflicts during this period. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis, and qualified candidates will be contacted for an interview.

MEM-394-16 The House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific seeks candidates for a Spring 2017 internship position. Undergraduates, graduate students, and recent graduates with a demonstrated interest in U.S. policy towards the Asia-Pacific will be considered. The Subcommittee offers full and part time internships.

The Subcommittee intern is expected to be motivated and entrepreneurial, a strong writer and communicator, detail oriented, and able to produce high quality work products under time constraints. The intern will assist with daily subcommittee operations such as research, database maintenance, fact checking, content editing, and proofreading. The intern will also assist with the preparation and execution of subcommittee hearings, which will include conducting research and analysis, organizing documents for staff and members, and assisting staff in the hearing room.

Proactive interns will be able to take advantage of this opportunity to enhance their knowledge of Asia policy and professional life on Capitol Hill by participation in hearings, briefings, and meetings, as well as other opportunities. Interns are expected to demonstrate a high level of professionalism and reliability. All internships are uncompensated, but staff are happy to support interns seeking class credit for their work.

Information about the subcommittee's membership and recent activities can be found at <http://foreignaffairs.house.gov/subcommittees/asia-and-pacific>.

Interested candidates should send a resume and a cover letter explaining their interest in the subcommittee's work, qualifications for the position, and hours of availability to hfac.asia.internship@gmail.com. Application materials must be received by 11:59pm, Sunday, December 18, 2016, and will be considered on a rolling basis.

- MEM-393-16 The Washington DC office of Congressman Patrick Meehan (R-PA) is currently accepting applications for Spring 2017. Intern responsibilities include researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, answering phones, and day to day office duties. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office. The hours are flexible, but generally run 8:30 AM – 5:30 PM when Congress is in session, and 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM when not in session. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to meehandcintern@mail.house.gov. This internship is unpaid. The deadline to apply is Friday, December 16, 2016. Ties to Pennsylvania are preferred, but not required.
- MEM-391-16 Energetic New York Democrat is seeking a highly motivated legislative intern to join his Washington, DC office for a part time unpaid internship this spring semester. Candidates should possess a professional and courteous demeanor, interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, the ability to multi-task, attention to detail, and a sense of humor. Main responsibilities include, but are not limited to, attending Congressional briefings, responding to constituent correspondence, assisting with flag requests, and general office duties. Candidates with New York ties and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, and a short writing sample to NY.ResumeInbox@mail.house.gov. Equal opportunity employer. No calls or walk-ins please.
- MEM-388-16 West Coast Democrat seeks highly motivated press interns in the DC office for the Winter/Spring semester. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to media monitoring, drafting press releases, talking points and social media, developing press lists, performing research and generally supporting the Communications Director. Candidates should be detail oriented with excellent writing skills and an ability to multitask in a fast-paced environment. Graphic skills a plus, though not required. Candidates should submit a resume and writing sample to or05.pressintern@gmail.com.
- MEM-387-16 Congressman Alcee L. Hastings (FL-20) is seeking enthusiastic and highly motivated applicants for a full or part-time unpaid internship for Spring 2017. The internship is scheduled to run from January to late-May/early-June, depending on the availability of the applicant.

Candidates should possess a strong interest in the legislative process. Strong oral and written skills and close attention to details are imperative. Interns are considered an integral part of the team and will have the opportunity to gain experience working on Capitol Hill and learn firsthand about the workings of a Congressional office. Responsibilities will include conducting legislative research, drafting memos and responses to letters from constituents, assisting constituents and visitors to the office, and attending briefings and hearings. Congressman Hastings supports students requesting credit for their internship through their school or university. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, writing sample and dates of availability to internship.alhastings@mail.house.gov with "2017 Spring Internship" in the subject line. No phone calls or walk-ins will be accepted.

MEM-385-16 The Washington, DC office of Congressman Brian Higgins (NY-26) is currently accepting full and part-time interns for the upcoming Spring 2017 semester. The internship program will begin in early January and end in May. Interns will assist permanent staff with constituent services, front office management, and various legislative duties. Key responsibilities include, but are not limited to; conducting legislative research, interfacing with constituents daily, and attending policy briefings. The internship program provides undergraduate/graduate students and recent graduates with the opportunity to delve into the process of creating and passing legislation. It is an in-depth look at how public policy is developed, implemented and evaluated. New York ties are preferred but not required. The internship is unpaid. Strong candidates are detail oriented and self-motivated. Candidates must have strong interpersonal skills and be proficient in written communications. Applicants must e-mail a cover letter, resume, and a one to three page writing sample to Kayla Williams at Kayla.williams@mail.house.gov. Please call 202-225-3306 with any additional questions.

MEM-384-16 Texas Democrat is seeking dependable and driven interns to join their Washington, DC office this winter. Candidates should be professional, quick learners, and seasoned team players. Duties include assisting staff with legislative, administrative, and press related projects. Interns will be given the opportunity to fully engage with public policy in their areas of interest within the scope of their roles in the office. These internships are unpaid. Full-time or part-time candidates with Houston or Texas ties are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to TXResumeInbox@mail.house.gov.

MEM-379-16 The House Ways and Means Democratic office is seeking an intern for Winter/Spring (January 2017 through April 2017). This internship is unpaid. The position is ideal for a recent college graduate interested learning about the role of the Committee and the various aspects of its jurisdiction. Prefer someone available full time, but willing to negotiate for the right candidate.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assist front office staff with answering phones and projects; assist Ways and Means Committee Counsels in various research projects;

- Assist in preparation for Committee hearings and markups;
- Assist press staff on an as needed basis;
- Perform other duties as assigned by the Intern Coordinator

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Excellent oral and written communication skills;
- high level of confidentiality;
- ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others;
- good organizational skills; and
- responsible, dependable and punctual.

If interested, please email your cover letter and resume to

Carrie.Breidenbach@mail.house.gov and provide a brief introduction including your dates of availability.

MEM-377-16 Texas Democrat is seeking dependable and driven interns to join their Washington, DC office this winter. Candidates should be professional, quick learners, and seasoned team players. Duties include assisting staff with legislative, administrative, and press related projects. Interns will be given the opportunity to fully engage with public policy in their areas of interest within the scope of their roles in the office. These internships are unpaid. Full-time or part-time candidates with Houston or Texas ties are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to TXResumeInbox@mail.house.gov.

MEM-376-16 The House Ways and Means Democratic office is seeking an intern for Winter/Spring (January 2017 through April 2017). This internship is unpaid. The position is ideal for a recent college graduate interested learning about the role of the Committee and the various aspects of its jurisdiction. Prefer someone available full time, but willing to negotiate for the right candidate.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assist front office staff with answering phones and projects; assist Ways and Means Committee Counsels in various research projects;
- Assist in preparation for Committee hearings and markups;
- Assist press staff on an as needed basis;
- Perform other duties as assigned by the Intern Coordinator

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Excellent oral and written communication skills;
- high level of confidentiality;
- ability to work cooperatively and courteously with others;
- good organizational skills; and
- responsible, dependable and punctual.

If interested, please email your cover letter and resume to

Carrie.Breidenbach@mail.house.gov and provide a brief introduction including your dates of availability.

MEM-371-16 Congressman John Garamendi (CA-03) is seeking a highly motivated intern to join his Washington, DC office this winter. Candidates should be collegial, professional, quick learners, and phenomenal team players. Strong oral and written communication skills and close attention to detail are imperative. Duties include assisting staff with legislative, administrative, and press related projects, writing memos and talking points, attending hearings and meetings, answering constituent phone calls, leading tours of the US Capitol, assisting with scheduling, sorting and distributing mail, and managing tour and flag requests. Interns are considered an integral part of the team and are given the opportunity to learn and grow through working with us both to achieve the goals of the office and to pursue and develop their areas of interest. First-hand experience in Congressman Garamendi's congressional office provides interns with an unparalleled knowledge and understanding of the development of public policy. Full-time candidates with California ties and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter and dates of availability to Garamendi.Internships@mail.house.gov.

MEM-370-16 Democratic Leadership office is currently accepting intern resumes for the upcoming 115th Congress. The spring internship program will begin early December and interns will assist with Member outreach, event planning, legislative work and press services. Interns will also be handling front office duties such as answering phones, distributing mail as well as directing guests to staffers. Qualified applicants must possess a pleasant attitude, great work ethic and have a flexible schedule. Candidates with prior Hill experience, in an education or leadership program are preferred.

Please email a cover letter and resume to Christofer.Horta@mail.house.gov with your availability. Include "2017 Spring Democratic Leadership Internship" in the subject line.

MEM-369-16 Congresswoman Diana DeGette (CO-01) seeks undergraduate or graduate students for full-time or part-time unpaid internships in her Washington, DC office. As a fast-paced office for an active member of the Democratic leadership, we expect a lot from our interns and pride ourselves on an excellent internship program. Duties include, but are not limited to, answering phones, sorting mail, attending briefings, drafting constituent correspondence, and providing research assistance to the legislative staff. Qualified candidates will possess excellent writing and communications skills, strong attention to detail, and an interest in the legislative process. Colorado ties preferred but not required. Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample to CO01.scheduler@mail.house.gov.

MEM-368-16 The Washington D.C. office of Congressman Sanford D. Bishop (GA-02) is seeking a full time press intern to work with Congressman Bishop's communications team. The press intern will work directly with the Communications Director to carry out responsibilities including, but not limited to, creating graphics, developing press lists, collecting and distributing press clips, drafting releases, and developing social media content. First-hand experience in the congressional office will provide a unique opportunity into the functions of a fast-paced press operations for a senior Democratic member office. It will also offer a unique insight in the legislative and parliamentary procedure, as Congressman Bishop is the Ranking Member of an Appropriations Subcommittee. The ideal applicant will have creative graphic design skills, strong writing skills, a sense of humor, and should be an avid consumer of political media. Applicants should email a cover letter, resume, and one or two writing samples to Jonathan.Black@mail.house.gov and Adilene.Rosales@mail.house.gov. Please do not hesitate to call Jon or Adi at 202-225-3631 with any questions.

MEM-366-16 The Washington DC office of Congressman Patrick Meehan (R-PA) is currently accepting applications for Spring 2017. Intern responsibilities include researching legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attending hearings and briefings, answering phones, and day to day office duties. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office. The hours are flexible, but generally run 8:30 AM – 5:30 PM when Congress is in session, and 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM when not in session. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to meehandcintern@mail.house.gov. This internship is unpaid. The deadline to apply is Friday, December 2, 2016. Ties to Pennsylvania's 7th Congressional District are preferred.

MEM-364-16 The Office of Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard (HI-02) is seeking a press intern for our Washington, D.C. office for the Winter/ Spring 2017 semester. Candidates should be well organized, have good oral and written communication skills, and possess a strong interest in learning about press operations, the political process, and congressional affairs. The intern will assist in the day-to-day operations of a DC Congressional office by supporting congressional staff with press clips and constituent communication and will help to draft press releases, prep memos, and social media posts, in addition to assisting with legislative research and administrative activities. Hawaii ties are appreciated but not necessary. Please note that this internship is unpaid. Interested candidates should send a resume, writing sample, and cover letter to Andres.Chovil@mail.house.gov. No calls or walk-ins please.

MEM-363-16 The D.C. office of Congressman Derek Kilmer, hailing from Washington's 6th district, is looking for personable, diligent full or part-time interns to start for the January and spring semester 2017 term. This is an opportunity to learn about the inner-workings of a congressional office on the Hill in a fast-paced work environment. The internship allows access to briefings and interesting events related to a wide range of important issues. Responsibilities include assisting with constituent correspondence, producing daily press clips, and leading tours of the Capitol. This is a unique opportunity and prime for students or recent grads who are interested in learning about the legislative process or may eventually want to work for the federal government. To apply, please send a resume, contact information for two references, and a cover letter outlining your interest in the position to nwcongressionalinternship@gmail.com, and expect a response within a week. Women, minorities and those with Washington state ties strongly encouraged to apply. We look forward to hearing from you!

MEM-362-16 The Washington DC office of Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-WI) is seeking motivated, hardworking and good-spirited spring 2016 interns. Interns will have the opportunity to work in a fun, yet diligent office during a busy time in Washington. Responsibilities include corresponding with constituents of Wisconsin's Fifth District, leading U.S. Capitol tours, assisting with various press and legislative projects and research, attending Capitol Hill briefings and hearings, answering constituent phone calls, giving and sorting mail and any other tasks of interest/as assigned. Interns can be expected to work in an exciting and quick paced environment. The internship can be flexible to schedules and accommodating of particular policy areas that the intern is passionate or curious about. Candidates of all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The internship is unpaid. Interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to sensenbrennerinterns@gmail.com.

MEM-359-16 The office of Congressman Bill Posey [FL-08] is currently seeking highly motivated and organized applicants for a full-time or part-time unpaid internship for the 2017 spring internship program. The internship is scheduled to run from January to May, but the months of the internship may vary depending on the availability or school schedule of the applicant. The internship program is open to college students and recent graduates who are interested in learning more about our country's legislative process and the day-to-day operations of a congressional office. Candidates should possess interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, and attention to detail. Responsibilities will mostly include, but are not limited to: answering phones, leading tours of the U.S. Capitol and performing various administrative tasks. Florida ties are preferred, but are not required. The deadline to apply is December 10, 2016. If interested, please send a resume to FloridaConservativeRepublican@gmail.com with "2017 Spring Internship" in the subject line. No phone calls or walk-ins will be accepted.

MEM-345-16 The Washington, DC office of Congresswoman Doris Matsui (CA-06) is seeking motivated, organized, and reliable interns for the spring semester of 2017. Intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, answering phones, conducting Capitol tours, sorting incoming mail, attending briefings, conducting legislative research and performing other administrative tasks as necessary. Successful candidates will possess excellent written and oral communication skills, a strong attentiveness to detail, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an eagerness to learn about the political process and congressional affairs. California ties are a plus. Please send a résumé, cover letter, and dates of availability to Peter.Durkin@mail.house.gov with “Internship” in the subject line.