INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of July 20, 2015

MEM-184-15 The office of a western Republican House member is looking for an unpaid intern for Fall 2015. Candidates should be hardworking, detail-oriented, and professional with strong communication and writing skills. Intern responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, providing general constituent services in the form of answering phone calls and sorting mail, leading Capitol tours, conducting research for staff members, drafting constituent correspondence, and attending hearings.

Interested candidates should send their resume, a cover letter, and a brief writing sample to WesternStateIntern@gmail.com.

MEM-183-15 The Washington, DC office of Congresswoman Louise M. Slaughter (D-NY) is offering Fall internship opportunities for college students and recent college graduates. First-hand experience interning in Congresswoman Slaughter's office provides a unique opportunity to understand the development and implementation of public policy. Intern responsibilities include drafting letters to constituents, attending committee hearings, writing summary briefs, researching various issues for the legislative staff, and assisting with additional office duties.

Interns are matched based on their policy interests with a legislative staffer and together they develop substantive projects that allow interns the chance to increase their knowledge of a subject area and better understand how the federal government works. Interns will also gain unique insight into the legislative process and parliamentary procedure as a result of Congresswoman Slaughter's position as the ranking member of the House Rules Committee. The Rules Committee determines the parameters of debate for all major pieces of legislation.

The internship provides different opportunities with staff to discuss their experiences on the Hill and future employment strategies.

Applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, and a one to three page writing sample to James Blum at NY25.InternApplications@mail.house.gov. Please do not hesitate to contact James at (202) 225-3615 with any questions.

MEM-182-15 The office of Congressman Dan Donovan (R-NY) is currently seeking highly motivated and organized applicants for a full or part-time unpaid internship for the 2015 fall internship session. Candidates should possess interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, and attention to detail. Responsibilities will mostly include, but are not limited to: answering phones, conducting Capitol tours, attending hearings and/or briefings for legislative staff, and performing various administrative tasks. New York ties are preferred, but are not required. The months of the internship may vary depending on the availability or school schedule of the applicant.

If interested, please send a resume, cover letter, and a writing sample to NY11internships@gmail.com with "Fall Internship" in the subject line. Please include your earliest possible start date and latest possible end date. NO phone calls or walk-ins will be accepted.
