INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of November 20, 2017

MEM-463-17 The office of Congresswoman Elizabeth H. Esty (CT-05) is currently seeking unpaid interns for Spring 2018. Interns will gain valuable exposure to and knowledge of the legislative process, communications, and the United States Congress. Duties include, but are not limited to: drafting constituent correspondence, greeting constituents and answering phones, drafting constituent outreach materials, performing legislative research, leading tours of the Capitol, attending policy briefings and meetings, and conducting research and additional tasks to assist the legislative and communications teams. We are seeking hard-working and detail-oriented college students with outstanding communication and time management skills. Applicants should have an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, have basic computer skills, possess excellent writing skills, and have an enthusiastic attitude. Interns are accepted throughout the year on both a full and part-time (at least 15 hours/week) basis. District ties preferred but not required. To apply for an internship in the DC office, please submit a cover letter, resume, and a brief writing sample (1-2 pages) to Sarah.Wiszniak@mail.house.gov. If you have any questions, please contact Sarah Wiszniak at (202) 225-4476.

MEM-462-17 The Office of Representative Ro Khanna (CA-17) is seeking qualified candidates to intern in the Washington, D.C. office from early January through late April to early May of 2018. Although internships are unpaid, students gain invaluable work experience on Capitol Hill. The hours can be flexible to accommodate students' evening schedules but generally run 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. when Congress is in session, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. when not in session. Interns are expected to be in the office at least 35 hours per week.

Interns' responsibilities will vary. They will be asked to answer phones, run errands, draft content for the communications team, research legislation for the Member and legislative staff, attend hearings and briefings, and answer constituent letters on various issues before the House. As a result, interns learn about the legislative process and the many other functions of a congressional office.

Candidates should have excellent writing and communication skills, strong organizational abilities, a good work ethic, an ability to work independently, and a drive to take initiative. Candidates with ties to California are preferred, but not required.

To apply to intern in the DC office, please send your resume, a short writing sample, and your dates and times of availability to cal7dcinterns.resumes@mail.house.gov. Due to the high volume of applicants, a response is not guaranteed. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.

MEM-461-17 Congressman Ron Estes (KS-04) seeks conservative and diligent interns for the spring semester. Duties including helping to draft constituent correspondence, welcoming constituents, leading Capitol tours, assisting with research, and aiding legislative staff. This unpaid internship would last from January to May, and is a challenging and meaningful introduction to the legislative process. To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to KS04DC.InternshipApplication@mail.house.gov.

MEM-460-17 Congressman Ben Ray Luján (NM-03) has immediate openings for unpaid full-time and part-time interns for his Washington, D.C. office. Candidates should be motivated, flexible, and detail-oriented individuals with immediate availability, and a preference for those who can stay two-three months. New Mexico ties are a plus, but are not required.

Intern responsibilities include answering constituent phone calls, leading tours of the Capitol, sorting mail and faxes, writing letters, and assisting experienced staff with projects in diverse issue areas. Candidates should be outgoing and possess strong oral and written communication skills, an ability to multitask in a fast-paced environment, and a good sense of humor. Candidates with New Mexico ties are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter – including desired start date, and a 1-2 page writing sample to Lujan.Tours@mail.house.gov.

MEM-459-17 Congressman Sean P. Duffy is looking for Winter/Spring interns! We are looking for energetic and driven individuals who are eager to learn. Congressman Duffy represents Wisconsin's 7th Congressional District and serves on the House Financial Services Committee as the Chairman of the House Financial Services Subcommittee on Housing and Insurance. The internship program is a very hands-on program where our goal is to make you feel like you are a part of the team and not just an intern whose sole responsibility is to answer phones. The main mission of the program is placement. Our hope is that after our interns leave the program they are prepared to step right into a Staff Assistant or maybe even a Legislative Correspondent position on Capitol Hill. If you are a student or recent graduate and think you would benefit from this opportunity please email your resume and cover letter to Wisc.internship@gmail.com. Ties to Wisconsin are not required but preferred.

CORE RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Legislative Research
- Writing constituent correspondence
- Administrative Duties
- Tours of the U.S. Capitol

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Track record of responsibility
- Exemplifies great customer service

Intern responsibilities include, but are not limited to, greeting visitors, answering phones, conducting US Capitol tours, sorting incoming mail, drafting letters to constituents, attending briefings, conducting legislative research and performing other administrative tasks as necessary. Ideal candidates will have excellent written and oral communication skills, experience working in a professional setting, ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and enthusiasm for the political process and congressional operations. Minnesota ties are a plus, but not required. Interested applicants should send a résumé, cover letter, and a brief writing sample to Kate Rohr at Kate.Rohr@mail.house.gov with "Spring Internship" in the subject line. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply.

MEM-456-17 Congressman Doug LaMalfa (CA-01) is currently seeking interns for the Winter term for his Washington D.C. office. Candidates must be self-starters, detail oriented, have excellent writing and communication skills, and be able to multi-task. The internship involves researching legislative issues, assisting with incoming mail, attending lectures and hearings, giving Capitol tours, working with legislative staff on special projects and assisting with other general office duties. Please note that this is an unpaid internship, if you are seeking college credit our office would be happy to assist in that. California ties a plus, but not necessary. Please email your cover letter and resume to kathleen.devlin@mail.house.gov with Winter Internship in the subject line.

- MEM-455-17 Conservative Midwestern Member of Congress seeking a part/full time Intern. Duties include, but aren't limited to, performing administrative tasks, leading Capitol tours, answering phones, sorting mail, and assisting legislative staff with writing and research.
