INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of August 31, 2015

MEM-272-15 The office of Congressman Jeff Fortenberry (NE-01) is seeking full and part-time interns for the fall semester in its DC office. Interns engage in a variety of tasks, and their responsibilities are assigned based on interests, capabilities, and the needs of the office. Interns will have the opportunity to hone their legislative research and writing skills and interact with senior legislative staff; attend hearings and briefings on Capitol Hill; assist with media/communications tasks and gain proficiency in IQ; and participate in our office's top priority, constituent outreach, by leading tours, greeting visitors, and answering phones. Exceptional interns in the past have gotten opportunities to write constituent letters and contribute to constituent and staff meetings on and around Capitol Hill.

If you are interested in applying for one of the most robust internship programs on the Hill, please submit a cover letter including the reason you would like an internship in Congressman Fortenberry's office, your résumé, two writing samples, and references to NE01internships@gmail.com.

MEM-271-15 The Office of Congressman Paul D. Tonko offers unpaid internship opportunities for students and recent college graduates seeking to gain a better understanding of the legislative process. Interns in our office are offered a comprehensive learning opportunity that goes above and beyond a normal internship on Capitol Hill.

Part of an intern's responsibilities in our office are fairly typical, including answering phones and helping with our mail program. However, they are also offered the opportunity to research and draft constituent correspondences on a wide variety of issues, provide Capitol tours to constituents, attend briefings both for staffers and for their own learning purposes, and assist with research for legislative staff members.

Every intern plays a critical role in the day-to-day operation of the office, and staff members do everything they can to ensure they receive a beneficial and rewarding experience here in our office.

If you have any questions regarding our internship program, please do not hesitate to contact James Johnson by email at: james.johnson@mail.house.gov or by phone at (202) 225-5076. Ideally looking for an intern who can start immediately or in early September and can intern at least 3 full days a week. Full-time preferred.

MEM-270-15 The office of a New York Congressman seeks an unpaid press intern with exceptional writing and editing skills. Duties will include: authoring interesting and creative content for the website on various topics and other tasks as assigned.
