INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of May 19, 2014

MEM-185-14

The DC office of Congressman Derek Kilmer, hailing from Washington's 6th district, is looking for personable, diligent full-time interns to start for either the first summer session (late May through early August) or the second summer session (early August through October). This is an opportunity to learn about the inner-workings of a congressional office on the Hill in a fast-paced work environment. The internship allows access to briefings and interesting events related to a wide range of important issues. Responsibilities include assisting with constituent correspondence, producing daily press clips, and leading tours of the Capitol. This is a unique opportunity and prime for students who may be eventually interested in working in a congressional office or for the federal government.

To apply, please send a resume, contact information for two references, and a cover letter outlining your interest in the position to nwcongressionalinternship@gmail.com and expect a response within a week. Those with Washington state ties strongly encouraged to apply. We look forward to hearing from you!

MEM-184-14 Energetic NY Freshman Democrat is seeking a highly motivated legislative intern to join his Washington, DC office for a part time unpaid internship this Summer. Candidates should possess a professional and courteous demeanor, interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, the ability to multi-task, attention to detail, and a sense of humor. Main responsibilities include, but are not limited to, attending Congressional briefings, responding to constituent correspondence, assisting with flag requests, and general office duties. Candidates with New York ties and previous internship/work experience are strongly encouraged to apply. Please e-mail a resume, cover letter, and a short writing sample to NY.ResumeInbox@mail.house.gov. Equal opportunity employer. No calls or walk-ins please.

MEM-180-14 Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-09) is currently accepting applications for internship positions in his Washington D.C. office. This unpaid internship will provide valuable hands-on experience in a Congressional office and a greater understanding of the legislative process. Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, attending Congressional briefings, giving tours of the Capitol, conducting research, responding to constituent inquiries, and processing tour and flag requests. Qualified applicants should possess a professional and courteous demeanor, excellent communication skills, the ability to multi-task, fastidious attention to detail, and interest in the legislative and governmental process.

This is an excellent opportunity for college students and recent graduates seeking Capitol Hill experience. All majors are encouraged to apply. Ties to California's Ninth Congressional District are preferred, but not required. Interested applicants should email a resume and cover letter to nick.sullivan@mail.house.gov with "CA-09 Internship" in the subject line. Include dates of availability.

MEM-179-14 The Washington, D.C. office of Congresswoman Louise M. Slaughter (NY-25) is seeking a full-time press intern to work with Congresswoman Slaughter's communications team. The press intern will work directly with the Press Secretary and Speechwriter & Director of Online Communications to carry out responsibilities including - but not limited to - creating graphics, developing press lists, collecting and distributing press clips, drafting releases and social media content, and contacting reporters.

While the position is unpaid, the office will work with universities to accommodate applicants wishing to earn academic credit. First-hand experience in the congressional office will provide a unique opportunity into the functions of a fast-paced press operation for a senior Democratic member office. It will also offer a unique insight into legislative and parliamentary procedure, as Congresswoman Slaughter is Ranking Member of the Committee on Rules. The Rules Committee determines the parameters of debate for all major legislation before it can be considered on the House Floor, including which amendments can be offered.

The ideal applicant will have strong graphic design skills, strong writing skills and should be an avid consumer of political media. Applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, and a one-to-three page writing sample to Jack Spasiano at NY25.InternApplications@mail.house.gov. Please do not hesitate to contact Jack at 202-225-3615 with any questions.

MEM-178-14 Energetic NY Freshman Democrat is seeking a full-time or part-time press and social media intern for the summer of 2014 in his Washington, D.C. office. Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to compiling press clips, monitoring daily news, drafting talking points and press releases, updating social media and working closely with the legislative staff. The ideal candidate will possess strong written communications skills, ability to work in a fast-paced environment, professionalism, and a good sense of humor. Please note that the internship is unpaid and housing is not provided, but students can qualify for academic credit depending on the requirements of the college or university. Interested applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, short writing sample (in the form of a speech or press release), and dates of availability with "Press Intern Summer 2014" in the subject line to NY.PressIntern@mail.house.gov. Equal opportunity employer. No phone calls or drop-ins please.

MEM-177-14 The Office of Congressman Steven Horsford (NV-04) seeks a motivated, organized, and reliable college student or recent graduate for a full-time or part-time, unpaid internship in Washington, D.C.

Duties include (but are not limited to) assisting the legislative, communications, and administrative staff with day-to-day operations: attending briefings, answering phones, conducting Capitol Tours, drafting constituent response letters and memos, and performing legislative research.

Applicants with ties to Nevada and Nevada's 4th District are highly encouraged to apply, though not necessary. To apply, please send a resume and brief cover letter summarizing your interest in working for Congressman Horsford to NV04internships@gmail.com. Indicate your anticipated start and end dates. Please no phone calls or drop-ins.
