INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of October 24, 2016

- MEM-321-16 The House Budget Committee Democratic staff is looking for two unpaid interns for the Spring semester. Primary responsibilities include answering phones, reviewing budget news articles, conducting research, preparing for Committee events and working with budget analysts on special projects. Interns will have the opportunity to participate in Budget Committee briefings, hearings and markups. In addition, interns are encouraged to attend events held by other committees. Candidates should also be self-starters, have strong writing skills and pay close attention to details.
To apply, please see details at <http://democrats-budget.house.gov>.
- MEM-320-16 The Democratic Staff of the Committee on Science, Space and Technology is seeking interns for the winter and spring semesters. Interns are asked to work with staff to help prepare for committee hearings and markups, and will work on substantive research and oversight projects in addition to press matters. Furthermore, interns will be critical to the daily operation of the office including tasks such as answering phones, greeting visitors, and filing official documents. Interested applicants should visit the Committee's website at <http://democrats.science.house.gov/internships>. Please fill out the provided application and attach a resume. No calls or drop-ins please.

- MEM-319-16 The office of Representative Bruce Poliquin is accepting applications for unpaid internships in Washington, D.C. for Spring 2017. The internship will offer students and young professionals invaluable experience with the legislative process. Interns work side by side with experienced full-time staff, and play an integral part in the daily operations of the office. A typical day for our interns includes welcoming folks to the office, researching legislation for the Congressman and policy staff, and answering constituent calls and letters on various issues before the House. Ties to Maine are preferred, but not required. Interested candidates should send their resume and cover letter to Poliquin.internship@mail.house.gov.
- MEM-318-16 The Office of Congressman Denny Heck (WA-10) is currently seeking full – or part – time interns for the Spring 2017 semester in Washington DC. Intern responsibilities include answering phone calls, greeting visitors, leading tours of the Capitol, drafting letters to constituents, and helping conduct research for various administrative projects. Ideal candidates will have a meticulous attention to detail, strong writing skills, an ability to work in a fast-paced environment, and an enthusiasm for the political process and congressional operations. Internships are unpaid, but can serve as a first-step towards a career on Capitol Hill. Ties to the Pacific Northwest preferred but not required. Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, two references, and work availability with the subject line “Spring 2017 Internship” to Nick Vargish at nick.vargish@mail.house.gov.
- MEM-317-16 Internship – The office of Congressman Mark Meadows (NC-11) seeks interns to serve in the Washington, DC office for the Spring 2017 semester. Ideal candidates will have excellent written and verbal communication skills as this position involves significant constituent interaction. Applicants must be detail oriented, professional, and highly organized. Responsibilities include scheduling and conducting Capitol tours, processing constituent mail, answering phones, conducting general administrative tasks, and supporting policy staff with various projects. Interested applicants may apply online at NC11.TOURS@mail.house.gov.
- MEM-316-16 Congressman Greg Walden is seeking a paid intern in his Washington, D.C. office to start immediately. Walden is a member of the House Republican leadership and the chairman of a very active subcommittee on Energy & Commerce, so the office is always very active. Ideal candidates will be college students or recent graduates who are outgoing, proactive, hard-working, detail-oriented, enthusiastic, able to multi-task, and have customer service experience. Willingness and ability to give enthusiastic tours of the U.S. Capitol is a must.

Interns will assist with many of the daily activities related to constituent relations. Although no two days are the same, an intern will be expected to lead tours of the U.S. Capitol, answer phones, greet Oregonians, and assist in managing constituent correspondence and administrative operations.

Interns will be immersed in the congressional process and their work will provide valuable experience for future endeavors. Prior interns in our office have gained excellent connections, learned about the many issues affecting our state and country, gained expertise in a wide array of policy areas, and gotten a detailed look at what makes the United States the most enduring democracy in the world.

Please submit an application at <https://walden.house.gov/internships>.
