MEMBER AND COMMITTEE VACANCY LISTING

Week of March 5, 2018

MEM-078-18 The press office of Rep. Louise Slaughter (NY-25) and the House Rules Committee is seeking a social media manager & press assistant to join an aggressive communications team. Responsibilities include managing the congresswoman's digital media channels, including website and social media accounts, developing engaging online content, writing e-newsletters, and taking photos and video. The social media manager & press assistant will also compile press clips, copy-edit press releases and talking points, and other projects as necessary. Must be comfortable working collaboratively to execute a broad communications strategy. Prior press and/or digital experience and familiarity with both graphic design and video editing is preferred. Ideal candidates must also have strong written and verbal communications skills and be able to work demanding hours in a fast-paced environment.

Interested candidates must submit a resume, cover letter, two writing samples, and two examples of social media or digital media work to digitalpressposting@mail.house.gov. Candidates will be considered on a rolling basis until the position is filled.

MEM-076-18 California Democrat (Rep. Jerry McNerney, CA-09) seeks experienced legislative director to develop and advance long-term legislative agenda.

Legislative Director will work closely with the Member, Chief of Staff, Communications Director, District Director, and staff to advance Member's priorities and implement strategic legislative and outreach strategies.

Successful candidate must work well in a collaborative, team-oriented environment and have the ability to oversee an active legislative team in implementing and advancing an expansive legislative agenda.

Legislative Director must be highly organized, detail oriented, and able to manage multiple tasks and projects. Excellent interpersonal skills and written and verbal communication, as well as strong editing and proofreading abilities are required.

Ideal candidate will be politically astute and have a good sense of humor and positive attitude.

Successful candidate must have the ability to thrive in a demanding, fast-paced, deadline-driven environment, and must be able to respond to challenging situations quickly and strategically.

This is not an entry-level position; only candidates with previous Hill experience and a solid knowledge of legislative and political processes will be considered. Prior experience serving as a Legislative Director or working on Energy and Commerce Committee-related policy issues – including energy, environment, and water – is strongly preferred.

California ties, Spanish literacy, and previous supervisory experience are a plus. Minorities and candidates with CA-09 ties are encouraged to apply.

Qualified applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, and two writing samples to: McNerneyResumes@mail.house.gov.

No calls or drop ins, please.
