MEM-359-18 The Committee on Education and the Workforce, Democratic Staff is currently seeking undergraduate and graduate interns and fellows for the Spring of 2019. Specifically, we are seeking general undergraduate interns, graduate and legal interns and fellows for the education policy team and graduate and legal interns and fellows for the labor policy team. Interns perform a variety of tasks that support the staff in our legislative and media work. Legislative tasks may include, but are not limited to: legislative research and fact checking; technical writing including legislation, memos, and speeches; assisting staff in hearing and markup preparation and execution; and attending other hearings, markups, briefings and meetings for the purpose of informing staff and Members as they work to craft legislation and policy proposals. Media tasks may include helping to organize and staff Committee press conferences and assisting with the production of daily news clips. Applicants should be able to start in January and commit through April/May. Interested applicants should email their cover letter, resume and internship applicant information form to jobs\_ewdems@mail.house.gov. If you are applying for a graduate internship or fellowship, please include two short, relevant writing samples in your application materials. Please visit our website at <http://democrats.edworkforce.house.gov/about/internships> for more information. Applicants should aim to submit their materials by November 2, 2018.

MEM-358-18 The Democratic staff of the House Committee on Education and the Workforce is seeking a professional, dependable, and enthusiastic student or recent graduate for a paid communications internship (up to 40 hours week) working closely with the press team on a variety of tasks. Duties will include drafting and posting Committee web content and social media, basic photography, drafting press releases and statements, press list maintenance, compiling and distributing daily press clips, media monitoring, and other communications and administrative tasks as assigned. Communications, journalism, public relations, public affairs, or political science majors and recent graduates preferred. Prior communications intern experience a plus. We will be accepting applications through November 1, 2018.

Please send a resume, brief cover letter, and one short writing sample to edlaborpressjobs@mail.house.gov.

MEM-357-18 The office of Congressman Walter B. Jones (NC-03) is currently seeking applicants for an internship in either his Washington, D.C. or Greenville, N.C. office for the Spring 2019 term. Interns in the Washington office help draft constituent correspondence, attend briefings and Congressional hearings, and function as a key part of the staff. Interns also assist with answering phone calls, providing tours of the Capitol, and organizing the constituent flag request our office receives. In the state office, interns will interact with constituents, work with federal agencies, and participate in outreach projects in order to resolve problems facing the people of Eastern North Carolina, as well as assist the staff with various administrative tasks. We're looking for college students or recent graduates who are motivated, detail-orientated, and ready to work in a fast paced setting. The ideal candidate possesses strong organizational, communication, and writing skills, as well as the ability to manage multiple tasks and work well under pressure in a team environment. A positive attitude and an interest in politics is a must. Although the internship is unpaid, you will gain valuable professional experience and an inside look at the lawmaking process on Capitol Hill. Academic credit is available for qualifying students. North Carolina and/or military ties are preferred, but not required. Interested candidates should apply at <https://jones.house.gov/serving-you/internships> by November 9th.

MEM-355-18 The Democratic Staff of the House Committee on Natural Resources is accepting applications for unpaid Full-Time Legislative Interns for the Winter/Spring 2019 term. While working with the Committee, interns are provided the unique opportunity to learn and experience the Congressional legislative process. Applicants must be able to follow direction, work independently, possess clear and concise writing skills, excellent research capabilities, and exceptional interpersonal skills.

Duties and responsibilities include:

- Research legislative policy issues
- Attend committee hearings, markups, briefings and meetings
- Conduct background studies
- Perform stakeholder outreach
- Answer phone calls
- Sort and distribute mail
- Compile data and statistics
- Draft correspondence
- Assemble committee documents
- Track House floor proceedings

Committee internships run concurrently with college semesters and/or quarters; from January - April for winter/spring internships. Our office hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Internships are unpaid but may be used for college credit. Interns are responsible for lodging and transportation.

To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume, and brief writing sample addressed to Henry Wykowski. Title your email with the subject line "Legislative Internship Application" and send to nrdems@mail.house.gov.
