About Rep. Blumenauer: A lifelong resident of Portland, Earl Blumenauer (OR-03) has devoted his entire career to public service. While still a student at Lewis and Clark College, he spearheaded the effort to lower the voting age both in Oregon and at the national level. He was elected to the Oregon Legislature in 1972. In 1978, he began serving on the Multnomah County Commission, and was elected to the Portland City Council in 1986. There, his 10-year tenure as the Commissioner of Public Works demonstrated his leadership on the innovative accomplishments in transportation, planning, environmental programs, and public participation that have helped Portland earn an international reputation as one of America's most livable cities.

Elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1996, Rep. Blumenauer is a strong advocate for federal policies to create livable communities, rebuild and renew infrastructure, provide housing choices, support sustainable economies, and improve the environment. He is a recognized leader in Congress for reforming federal drug laws and promoting animal welfare. Blumenauer sits on the Ways and Means Committee, giving him a unique platform from which to initiate legislation that addresses and mitigates the effects of global warming while also advancing his priorities of honest trade, financing critical infrastructure, and ensuring economic security for working families.

Please send a resume, cover letter and writing sample to md06.internships@mail.house.gov by December 1, 2016 with "Spring Press Internship" in the subject line.
- MEM-327-16 Democratic Congressman seeks applicants for full- or part-time unpaid congressional internship for Spring 2017. Duties will include conducting legislative research, drafting memos, assisting with front office duties, and performing basic administrative tasks. Candidates must exhibit strong writing and communication skills. Maryland residents or strong ties to Maryland are preferred. Please send a resume, cover letter and writing sample to md06.internships@mail.house.gov by December 1, 2016 with "Spring Congressional Internship" in the subject line.
- MEM-326-16 Arizona Republican is seeking interns for his Washington D.C. office for the Fall, Winter and Spring Semesters. Interns will be exposed to a wide array of the daily activities of a Congressional office – engaging with constituents, assisting members of the staff with writing and other projects as needed and giving tours of the Capitol Building. Additional duties of interns include answering telephones, greeting visitors and sorting mail.

While this position is unpaid, the benefits of interning on Capitol Hill can't be overstated. This position will help you understand the inner workings of Capitol Hill in a way that's impossible to get otherwise.

Applicants should have excellent time management and writing abilities, have strong organizational skills with a keen eye for details, and should be motivated self-starters who can produce results with minimal supervision. Arizona ties and previous Hill experience a plus but not required.

Please send a cover letter, one-page resume, and a two- to three-page writing sample to GOPinternshipAZ@gmail.com with "Internship Application" in the subject line. No phone calls please.

MEM-325-16 Congressman Bruce Westerman (AR-04) is currently accepting applications for his Spring and Summer 2016 internship program in his Washington, D.C. and Hot Springs offices. He is seeking highly qualified candidates who are motivated, detail-oriented, and personable. The ideal candidates will have excellent research and writing abilities, be able to multi-task and interact well with constituents. Interns will have the opportunity to experience working on Capitol Hill, learn about the legislative process, and attend briefings of interest. In the DC office, responsibilities will include answering the phone, giving tours of the Capitol, assisting with constituent correspondence, and supporting the legislative and communication staff on various projects. Although internships are unpaid, the office is happy to fill out any necessary forms for students to receive credit at their respective college or university. Arkansas ties are preferred, but not required. Interested candidates should email a resume and cover letter to Jordan.Garcia@mail.house.gov.

MEM-324-16 The Washington, D.C. office of Congressman Dan Donovan (NY-11) is seeking applications for full- or part-time, unpaid interns for the Spring semester. The internship is scheduled to run from mid-January to late-May/early-June, but the months of the internship can vary depending on the availability or school schedule of the applicant, if need be. Applicants must be willing to work at least two full days a week. Candidates should possess interest in the legislative process, excellent organizational and communication skills, and attention to detail. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, answering phones, talking with constituents, scheduling and giving tours of the U.S. Capitol, attending and summarizing briefings and hearings for legislative staff, and supporting the office with any additional duties. Interested candidates should email a current resume and a list of three references, with the subject line "Spring Internship" to NY11Resumes@mail.house.gov.
