Duties will include drafting and posting Committee web content and social media, basic photography, drafting press releases and statements, press list maintenance, compiling and distributing daily press clips, media monitoring, and other communications and administrative tasks as assigned. Communications, journalism, public relations, public affairs, or political science majors and recent graduates preferred. Prior communications intern experience a plus.

Please send a resume, brief cover letter, and one short writing sample to carlos.murillo@mail.house.gov”

MEM-098-19 The Republican staff of the House Budget Committee is currently accepting applications for spring 2019 Interns. The dates of the internship will be March 1, 2019 through May 31, 2019. We are seeking individuals who are dependable, politically conservative, professional, and who have a strong work ethic and positive attitude. As an intern with the Committee, you will provide vital support by assisting staff in assignments that include, but not limited to: compiling daily budget news clips, sorting and processing mail, answering phone calls, assembling reference material, administrative support, and special policy based projects. Full and part-time positions are available. College students pursuing a Political Science and/or Economics degree, or those interested in government are encouraged to apply. Course credit may be available through your school. Applicants should email their resume, cover letter, 2 references (1 professional and 1 academic), one page writing sample, and completed application to budget.interns@mail.house.gov. These materials should be in PDF format. Please visit republicans-budget.house.gov for the application and more information.

MEM-096-19 The House Democratic Caucus is currently seeking candidates for a full or part-time Policy Fellowship, with positions available starting immediately. Fellows will report to the Policy Director and specialize in applicable policy areas. Fellows will track legislation, perform legislative research, and assist the Policy Director as needed.

Applicants should possess excellent research skills, the ability to manage multiple tasks in a fast-paced environment, and advanced writing skills.

Ideal candidates will either be enrolled in or have completed a Master's program or law program with good standing. Ideal candidates will also have political experience (in a legislative office or other-wise) and/or a strong history of performing legislative research. Capitol Hill experience is preferred, but not required.

Interested applicants should send a resume, cover letter, and two writing samples to DemCaucus.Fellowship@mail.house.gov with applicant name and "Policy Fellowship" in the subject line no later than Friday, February 22th at 5:00pm. In cover letter, please include availability and policy areas of expertise. Applicants must be willing to work through May 2019 (with possibility of extension) and should be within commuting distance from Capitol Hill. Please no phone calls or drop-ins.

Women and minority candidates are particularly encouraged to apply. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, disability or age.
