INTERNSHIP VACANCY LISTING

Week of January 27, 2014

MEM-117-14

The office of Congressman Denny Heck (WA-10) is looking for interns on a full or part-time basis. A qualified candidate is highly motivated, well-organized, responsible, and possesses good oral and written communication skills. In addition, candidates should be knowledgeable about current events and demonstrate interest in public policy and government.

Duties will include helping staff with correspondence and research, leading tours of the U.S. Capitol, as well as greeting guests, answering phones, and assisting with other front-office duties. Washington or Pacific Northwest ties are preferred.

While this is an unpaid internship, the office is happy to assist interns who qualify for academic credit. All interested applicants should send a cover letter and resume to Paige.Langer@mail.house.gov

MEM-116-14

The Democratic office of the Committee on House Administration seeks energetic and self-motivated undergraduate or graduate level students as well as recent graduates with an interest in government and public policy to apply for its Spring 2014 internship. Working closely with Committee staff, interns will have the opportunity to gain first-hand knowledge of the inner-workings of a congressional committee and learn about the day-to-day administrative operations of the House of Representatives. Interns are responsible for assisting Committee staff with official proceedings (hearings/markups), elections oversight, member services, and other projects as well as providing general front office support. Please note that this is not a paid internship. Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and available hours to aislan.sims@mail.house.gov with the subject headline, "CHA Dem Internship."

MEM-115-14

Energetic NY Freshman Democrat is seeking a full-time (4-5 days a week) or part-time (20 hours or 3 days a week) press intern for the spring of 2014 in his Washington, D.C. or NY office. Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to compiling press clips, monitoring national and local daily news, drafting talking points and press releases, updating social media and working closely with the legislative staff. The ideal candidate will possess strong written communications skills, ability to work in a fast-paced environment, professionalism, and a good sense of humor. Please note that the internship is unpaid and housing is not provided, but students can qualify for academic credit depending on the requirements of the college or university. Interested applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, short writing sample (in the form of a speech or press release), and dates of availability with "Press Intern Spring 2014" in the subject line to NY.PressIntern@mail.house.gov. Equal opportunity employer. No phone calls or drop-ins please.

MEM-114-14

Energetic NY Freshman Democrat is seeking a highly motivated intern to join his Washington, DC office for a part time unpaid internship. Candidates should possess a professional and courteous demeanor, interest in the legislative process, excellent communication skills, the ability to multi-task, attention to detail, and a sense of humor. Main responsibilities include, but are not limited to, attending Congressional briefings, responding to constituent correspondence, assisting with flag requests, and general office duties.
